PERSONAL.

Mrs. W. W. Howe is visiting relatives in Cynthiana.

Mrs. Jas. Alexander is visiting relatives in Winchester.

Mrs. Margaret Donnell is visiting relatives near Lexington.

Master Harry Crutcher of Frankfort, is visiting at G. R. Keller's.

SCHOOL CONTESTS.

The Fourth Annual Graded School Tournament was held at Paris Thursday, Friday and Saturday of last week, and proved a very valuable stimulant to the cause of education. Large crowds attended the exercises each evening at the opera-house.

MILLERSBURG.

Miss Ella Reynolds, of Carlisle, was the guest of Miss Angie Piper last week.

Will Hayes, of Cincinnati was here last week visiting his mother.

SHAKE RAG.

The long-looked for rain has come and the farmers are through setting tobacco.

Henry Rafferty is still very low, with no hopes of recovery.

RELIGIOUS

Rev. John Jay Dickey, of London, Ky., was here Sunday and made an address before the Epworth League of the Methodist Church in the shape of an appeal for the inhabitants of the Kentucky mountains and took up a collection of $25.

Dr. W. B. Crampton, of the Georgetown College, was here Sunday and preached two sermons for Bro. Mitchell at the Baptist Church.

At Cynthiana ex-Mayor P. H. Crane tried to commit suicide by jumping out of a two-story building on the sidewalk. Although he did not succeed in killing himself, he was greatly bruised, and will likely have to have an arm amputated. He was for years the leader of the Republican party, and was the only Republican ever elected as Mayor.

OLD SOLDIERS, Tried and True ::::

:-: Battle-Scarred and Weather-Beaten.

Fell in line once more last Saturday on our streets, and as the drum pounded out its "Tum—Tum—Tum, Tum, Tum," they got the "steady step," and as they glanced up and down the line they felt that swelling of the breast that nothing else in this world can inspire. Except that instead of the ambition and excitement of the battlefield, they talked and thought of "Peace on earth, good will to men;" no more "Blue," no more "Gray," but all alike with bowed heads and reverential hearts vied with each other to do honor to the dead.

And you may think they didn't get the "steady step" toward Bryson's & Neal's, dear friends, but there's where you'd "lose out." We are doubly proud to say that our "banner" day's business was on Decoration Day, and we say: "Old soldiers, long may you live, and happy may you be," and come again often and stay as long as you like.

We are coming to the front for Fall trade, good people. We are making purchases DAILY for Fall trade, and we rise to remark that we are certainly getting the "inside" on everything. Monday and Tuesday we had the pleasure of being offered exclusive control in this city of the Mammoth stock of Arnold, Constable & Co., of New York City, through their courteous representative, Mr. Nuchols, who fortunately is a personal friend of our Mr. Neal, and comes here as a special favor to him. Biggest house in the United States, and we got import prices on everything:

Dress Goods, Such as we never saw before; . . .
Silks, Satins, Fine Flannels, Handkerchiefs,

And everything like that. We would have been glad if every lady in the county could have been here to see the exquisite fancies carried by this great house. And on the "dead quiet" we just simply BOUGHT 'EM—lots of them—more than we should have, but we couldn't help it.

We hope to see our friends come in literally next MONDAY, COUNTY COURT DAY, and we will offer them something they want at extraordinarily low prices. WE CAN'T BE UNDERSOLD!

BRYSON & NEAL.

CLOTHING

At a Sacrifice,

Next Monday, June 8th.

Some few days since we were importuned by M. & L. S. Fechheimer & Co., of Cincinnati, to buy a line of Fine Men's Suits at a price that we thought quite low, but the heavy stock on hand suggested to us that we had enough. Before we left, however we were prevailed upon to make an offer upon entire lot of 334 suits. We did so, and at the time the offer was rejected, but Tuesday morning they telegraphed their acceptance and we will give you a brief outline of what we will get in this purchase:

All-Wool Imported Cheviots, In the Newest Light Colored Shades.

All-Wool Imported Clay Worsteds, In Black, Blue, Brown and Gray.

All the newest shades of this season. These suits are the best of tailored garments and contain the best of trimmings, (we handle no other kind,) and were made to retail at $12.50, $15 and $18.

Monday, Choice for $8.75.

To plce all our patrons on an even footing, those who cannot be suited in the above advertised line can select anything in stock that may please them at ONE-THICD OFF THE REGULAR PRICE. This applies to Clothing only. Not a single garment is reserved. Among the greatest reductions we will be on CHILDREN'S SUITS.

HECHINGER & CO.

Goods on display in St. Cloud Hotel.

The C. O. D. Store Still in the Ring.

Having made personal arrangements for myself I desire to announce that the C. O. D. Store will be placed in charge of J. W. B. Lee and Thos. R. Boyd, who will see that all of our friends who may call will be treated in a business like way.

I am going to the city this week to buy new goods, and next week, at the solicitation of the Buckeye Suspender Company, I shall make a trip through their Southern territory for them. With this new arrangement I desire to make known my determination to continue in business in Carlisle.

--Our rules of business will be continued--

CASH ON DELIVERY—GOOD GOODS AT THE VERY LOWEST PRICES.

We offer some fresh bargains this week, and ask you to call and see them.
