Homemakers

Sunnyside Homemakers

The Sunnyside Homemakers met on Tuesday, April 21, 1992 at the home of Ruth Ishmael. The devotional was given by Anna Mae Gillispie. She read Psalm, 1st chapter followed by prayer.

Phyllis Brady read two poems entitled "The Call of the Earth" and Song of Spring". Six members and Margie Wilson answered roll call with our most memorable April Fool's joke. Phyllis Brady read the minutes or report of the March meeting.

Mrs. Margie give announcements. Our annual county meeting is Thursday night at the Carlisle Christian Church. Sunnyside is in charge of the program which will be three ladies from Irvine with their funny skits. Then our International Buffet is May 4 at the Carlisle Christian Church. The country is Holland. Sunnyside is in charge of clean-up.

Ruth Ishmael showed a beautiful quilt she is finishing for someone, and Lavina McFarland showed a wooden rabbit she'd made and was making a small "quilt in a pocket" or "pillow quilt".

We had a very delicious lunch spread in Ruth's lovely dining room.

We have another lady who has belonged to Homemakers for over 50 years, Mrs. Anna Mae Gillispie.

Margie Wilson gave the lesson on microwave breads.

Mrs. Lucille Courtney had a game won by Lavina and Phyllis Brady had a game won by Lucille.

The next meeting will be at the home of Dorothy Fryman May 19.

Birth

TINCHER

Bobby and Geri Tincher of Maysville are announcing the birth of their second child, a daughter, who made her advent at 2:37 p.m., April 10 in Central Baptist Hospital, Lexington.

The little girl tipped the scales at seven pounds and 15 ounces and has been named Amber Marie. She is welcomed at home by a sister, Laura.

Mrs. Lena Ray Tincher, of Carlisle, is the baby's grandmother.

MSU invites Nicholas to PEP

Nicholas County Schools has been invited to attend Morehead State University's Department of Home Economics Personal Enrichment Program (PEP) for high school students of home economics on Friday, May 1.

The day will include presentations by MSU faculty and students, mini-classes, special entertainment and other activities, according to Carolyn Flatt, assistant professor of home economics and chair of the PEP activities.

"Invitations have been sent to more than 150 high schools in Kentucky and Ohio, inviting students and their teachers to spend a day on the MSU campus with the Department of Home Economics," Flatt said.

Dr. Charles Derrickson, dean of the College of Applied Sciences and Technology, will be the speaker for a luncheon which will be prepared and served by MSU's home economic students and faculty.

PEP is designed to provide high school students with an inside look at programs and job opportunities within the home economics field, while offering them broad information on the total college experience.

Additional information is available from Flatt at (606) 783-2205.

Conservation supervisors attend area meeting
