Lady Jackets roll in first round of Male Classic over Oldham

By Pam Bowles
Of The Carlisle Mercury Staff

LOUISVILLE - The Nicholas County Lady Jackets ran out to an eight point lead late in the fourth quarter to defeat Oldham County, ranked 20th in the state, 44-37 in the first round of the Male Holiday Classic Friday afternoon.

Nicholas County gained an added boost from sophomore Kim Denkins. The 6-foot-4 center had 17 points, 11 rebounds and several blocked shots throughout the game.

Denkins overpowered 5-foot-8 junior Becky Robinson from Oldham County.

The Lady Jackets opened the game with Christie Hatton dumping off a pass to Denkins for an easy bucket under the basket.

Wendy Francis drove the lane to tie the score a 2-2.

Hatton countered with a jumper from the right baseline and Robinson hit under the basket to tie the score at 4-4.

Nicholas came charging back with Kristi Barton passing off to Denkins for a bucket, Denkins made a steal which Tacy Earlywine converted into two points for the Lady Jackets to take an 8-4 lead.

Dawn Bradshaw hit a base line jumper, Cindy Herdron made a steal and connected on a layup to tie the score at 8-8.

Bradshaw gave Oldham County its first lead of the game at 10-8 with 1:51 left in the first quarter.

Nikki Smoot hit the last shot of the first quarter to tie the score at 10-10.

Smoot drove the length of the court as Oldham's Bradshaw fouled Smoot and she canned the two free shots.

Robinson hit in the paint for the Lady Colonels.

Oldham County regained the lead on a jumper from Francis.

Hatton was fouled on her drive to the basket and sank both shots and Earlywine fired in a jumper to give Nicholas an 18-14 lead with 2:20 left in the half.

The Lady Colonels ran off five straight points to recapture the lead at 19-18.

Hatton hit a jumper with two seconds left in the half to give Nicholas County a 20-19 lead.

The two teams opened the second half with double dribbles. Robinson gave Oldham the lead back at 21-20.

Denkins grabbed the rebound twice to connect on a basket for the Lady Jackets for a 22-21 lead.

Bradshaw hit for Oldham County to take a 23-22 lead.

Hatton sank one of two free throws for the Lady Jackets to tie the score at 23-23.

Hatton's foot was on the three point line as she fired in a jumper to give Nicholas a 25-24 lead.

Kim Denkins, playing her best so far this season, rejects a jump shot from Oldham County's Jennifer Craigmyle from the side of the key. The Lady Jackets knocked off the 20th ranked high school girl's team,44-37, in the Male Holiday Classic at Louisville, Kentucky Friday afternoon before losing their first game this season in a heartbreaker to 12th ranked Shelby County early Saturday morning, 37-36. However, the Lady Jackets made their presence known by outplaying the highly touted Lady Colonels. By statistics, the Lady Jackets defeated the Shelby squad, but the points just didn't come for them in the final seconds.

Robinson hit the last shot of the quarter for the Lady Colonels to take a 26-25 lead.

Denkins blocked an Oldham shot and then scored off an assist from Hatton to end the third quarter with the Lady Jackets holding on to a 29-26 lead.

Hatton went up for a rebound off her own miss to score the first bucket of the fourth period.

Denkins fired in a jumper to give Nicholas a 33-26 lead with 6:01 left in the game.

Bradshaw hit a jumper and Francis scored from the top of the key to cut the Nicholas lead to 33-32.

The Lady Jackets came charging back with Denkins converting on a three point play, Hatton sank two free throws, and Earlywine scored off an assist from Smoot to take a 40-32 lead with 2:05 remaining in the game.

Hendron fired a jumper from the top the key to cut the lead to 40-34.

Earlywine scored off a pass from Denkins, Denkins then blocked a shot and Earlywine scored again to push the lead to 44-34.

With five seconds left in the game Hendron fired in a three pointer from the top of the circle to end the game at 44-37.

Nicholas advanced to the semi-finals against Shelby County on Saturday morning.

Coach Barbara Kenney said, "Oldham had been ranked high in the pre-season, but lost four players from last season's team.

"I thought our defense was very good and we got a lot of weak side help.

"I thought Kim and Christie played a good game, but the entire team played good today."

Denkins led Nicholas with 17, Hatton had 13, Earlywine added 10 and Smoot with 4.

Lady Jackets scare 12th ranked Shelby

By Pam Bowles

LOUISVILLE - The Nicholas County Lady Jackets led throughout the semi-final game of the Male Holiday Classic against Shelby County, ranked number 12 in the sta.e, until the last two minutes of the game. The Lady Rockets edged out the Lady Jackets 37-36 as Nicholas County had two shots at the basket in the last seconds of the game.

The game was a defensive matchup throughout morning.

Kim Denkins guarded Kim Cunningham a junior from Shelby County.

Coach Barbara Kenney said, "Kim (Denkins) did an excellent job on Cunningham, who is said to be the best junior in the state."

Nikki Smoot made a steal off the opening tip and drove the lane for a layup.

Cunningham fired in a jumper in the paint for Shelby to tie the score at 2-2.

Christie Hatton hit a jumper from the right baseline to take a 4-2 lead.

The two teams played intense defense for three minutes without either team scoring a point.

Whitney Jones sank one free throw for the Lady Rockets.

Denkins grabbed her own miss for a basket and Kristi Barton scored off a good pass from Denkins to give Nicholas a 8-3 lead with 2:14 left in the first quarter.

Kolisha Thomas connected on a three point play with 43 seconds left in the first period for a 8-6 lead for Nicholas County.

Renee Linville made a steal off the opening play of the game for a layup for the Lady Jackets.

Smoot gunned in a three pointer and then made a steal for a layup to give Nicholas a 15-6 lead.

With 3:45 left in the second quarter Kathy Woods fired in a three pointer to cut the Nicholas lead to 15-11.

Denkins hit a short jumper for the Lady Jackets.

Cunningham scored a bucket, but then committed her third personal foul with 2:30 left in the first half.

Smoot canned the two charity tosses to give Nicholas a 19-12 lead.

The Nicholas County defense closed in on the middle and left Jones open for two three pointers. She cut the Lady Jackets lead to 19-18 at intermission.

Hatton scored in the paint for the Lady Jackets, and Kolisha Thomas hit off a rebound to cut the Nicholas lead to 21-20.

With 5:49 left in the third period Denkins blocked a Shelby shot and Hatton fired in a jumper from the baseline to push the lead to 23-20. Denkins drove the lane for a bucket to give Nicholas a 25-22 lead.

Jones sank a charity toss and Cunningham hit off the missed free throw to tie the score a 25-25 with 4:44 left in third period.

Renee Linville scored off a rebound and Hatton gunned in a three pointer to give Nicholas a 30-25 lead.

With 1:06 left in the third quarter Jones fired in a three pointer and Cunningham canned a free throw to end the third period with the Lady Jackets holding on to a 30-29 lead.

Cunningham picked up her fourth foul with 6:57 left in the game and Smoot sank both free throws to give Nicholas a 32-29 lead.

"Cunningham came back to cut the the Lady Jackets lead to 32-31 and Kolisha Thomas gave Shelby County a lead off a missed shot at 33-32 with 5:53 left in the game.

Denkins recaptured the lead for Nicholas County on a put back shot at 34-33.

With 4:24 left in the game Cunningham regained the lead for the Lady Rockets.

Denkins gave the Lady Jackets their last lead of the game at 36-35 with 3:38 left in the game.

Cunningham made a steal and converted into a layup with 2:42 to go in the period.

Nicholas County's Tacy Earlywine missed the front end of a one and one with 2:33 to play and with 1:02 left Barton missed a short jumper.

The Lady Jackets had two opportunities to win the game with 12 seconds remaining.

Kenney said, "I thought the team played good defense, but they started getting tired toward the end of the game.

"This is type of game you really hate to lose when we lead the entire game and lost in the final seconds."

The Lady Jackets were led by Smoot with 11, Denkins followed with 10, Hatton added 9, Linville had 4, and Barton with 2.
