Nicholas captures Greenup tournament

By Pam Bowlen
Of The Carlisle Mercury Staff

LLOYD — The Nicholas County Bluejackets captured the 10th annual Greenup County Invitational Tournament over the weekend.

The Jackets first test was the West Carter Comets.

Nicholas trailed most of the game as the Jackets sealed the game in the last minute for a 80-78 victory.

Daniel Brown scored a tournament-record of 47 points in the game against West Carter.

The Jackets started the game very slow as the Comets jumped out to 4-0 lead.

Daniel Brown connected on a three point play and a pass from Jarrod Wills down the court for a bucket to take a 5-4 lead.

Lonnie Rue ended the quarter with a three pointer for a 13-8 West Carter advantage.

Daniel Brown fired in two jumpers in the paint to tie the score at 15-15.

The two teams traded baskets in the second half and Wes Broderick finished the half with a layup to cut the Comets lead to 33-30.

The Jackets recaptured the lead at the six minute mark off a Travis Sims shot to give Nicholas a 36-35 lead.

The score changed hands on each possession and with 2:36 left in the third quarter Sims fired in a jumper and Danile Brown gunned a three pointer to give Nicholas a 47-44 lead.

Daniel Brown drove the middle to give Nicholas a 51-48 lead with 1:00 left in the third quarter.

West Carter scored five straight points to end the the quarter with a 53-51 lead.

The game seemed up for grabs as the teams swapped buckets.

With 4:51 left in the game Daniel Brown drove the middle to cut West Carter's lead to 69-68.

The Comets outscored the Jackets 6-2 for a 68-61 advantage with 3:43 left in the game.

Brown sank two free throws for the Jackets, James Greene added a bucket for the Comets for a 70-63 lead.

Kevin Morris and Bradley Brown each fired in a three pointer to cut the lead to 70-69 with 2:56 remaining in the game.

Play began to become scrappy as Daniel Brown was fouled and canned both charity tosses to take a 71-70 lead.

Lester Bailey scored for the Comets, Daniel Brown sank two free throws and Shay Berry hit one of two free throws to tie the game at 72-72 with 1:50 left in the game.

Sims scored two buckets off misses and Berry fired in a jumper for West Carter as Nicholas led 77-75.

West Carter connected on a three points to take the lead back at 78-77.

Daniel Brown drove the middle for a bucket, Sims made a steal and Brown hit one of two free throws to take an 80-78 first round victory.

Greenup County

The Jackets held on to a 61-58 victory over the host team, Greenup County , in the finals of its invitational.

The Musketeers managed only three points in the first quarter.

The Jackets scored 11 points in the first quarter from Daniel Brown with seven points and a bucket to Sims and Jamie Simons.

The Musketeers scored the opening two baskets of the second quarter to cut the lead to 11-7.

The Jackets ended the quarter off a baseline jumper from Morris and Daniel Brown made a steal which converted to two free throws for a Nicholas lead of 21-16.

Greenup County was able to cut the score to 28-24 with 1:41 left in the third quarter off a three pointer from Shawn Brown.

The Jackets rallied back off a jumper from Bradley Brown and brother Daniel Brown fired in a shot from the top of the key with 1:09 left in the third quarter to give the Jackets a 32-24 lead.

Brad Stultz hit one of one from the charity line to end the quarter as the Jackets held to a 33-25 advantage.

The game opened on a technical foul on Randy Ward the Greenup coach. Daniel Brown sank both free throws.

Brown was fouled on two straight possession and sank all four tosses to extend the lead to 38-25.

Brown accuracy from the line continued as he sank four straight free throws to give Nicholas a 48-36 lead a with 3:50 left to play.

Greenup fired up two three pointers, but continued to put the Jackets on the free throw line and they were able to capitalize.

Nicholas held on to a 61-58 victory in the finals of the Greenup County Invitational Tournament.

The Jackets carried off the hardware from Greenup County.

Nicholas County received the winning trophy and the team free throw award.

Daniel Brown received trophies for most points, most assists, best free throw accuracy by connecting on 10 of 22 in the final game and was awarded the best defensive player.

Jamie Simons was named player with the most rebounds.

Coach Ed Oakley said, "This team is playing like a team again. Each player has accepted their role and is doing what the job calls him to do.

"Daniel (Brown) maybe scoring the most points, but he understands the team concept also. He was given the award for the best defensive player, but felt his teammate, Kevin Morris, deserved it more and give it to him.

"It makes you feel good to come up here where there is so much tradition and be able to win this tourney.

"We made some hone head plays down the stretch, but held on for the victory."

The Jackets scoring in the West Carter game was Daniel Brown with 47, Sims 19, Bradley Brown 6, Morris 4 and Wills and Broderick 2.

In the Greenup game Daniel Brown led the way with 36, Morris 7, Bradely Brown and Wills 6, Sims 4, and Simons 2.

Tacy Earlywine breaks through two Montgomery County defenders for two of her overall 17 points in the Lady Jackets rout of the Indians, 70-47. Earlywinelled the scoring for the Lady Jackets in the 10th region rivalry.

Lady Jackets down Montgomery

By Pam Bowlen
Of The Carlisle Mercury Staff

CARLISLE — The Nicholas County Lady Jackets put forth a blistering attack as the Montgomery County Lady Indians on Monday night with an impressive 70-47 rout.

As the clock ran out the Lady Jackets cleared the bench and paced four starters in double digits.

Christie Hatton started the Lady Jackets out with a jumper from the three point line. Candy Crooks countered with a bucket off a rebound to tie the score at 2-2 and the closest the Lady Indians would come.

Nicholas County scored 10 straight points to take a 12-2 lead with 2:18 remaining in the first period.

Nikki Smoot started the rout with a bucket, followed by Hatton's three pointer, and Smoot made a steal which led to a layup.

Serra King gave Montgomery County its first basket in over four minutes.

Kim Denkins sank two free throws, Tacy Earlywine grabbed a rebound and drove the length of the floor for a layup, and Smoot canned two charity tosses to extend the lead to 18-4.

Linville made a steal and Hatton connected on a jumper to give Nicholas a 20-4 lead with 26 seconds left in the first period.

King scored in the paint for the Lady Indians and Earlywine fired in a shot off an Elizabeth Schanding assist to end the quarter with Nicholas holding an overwhelming 22-6 lead.

Denkins pulled down her second rebound of the game to cut the Lady Jackets to open the second quarter.

Mary Beth Burton hit for Montgomery County to cut the Lady Jackets lead to 24-6.

Earylwine fired in two jumpers and Denkins connected on a three point play to stretched the lead to 31-8.

The Lady Indians scored six straight points to cut into the Nicholas lead of 31-14.

The Lady Jackets rallied back to stick six free throws from Barton and Smoot to end the first half with Nicholas extending out to a 39-19 lead.

The Lady Indians were able to cut score the Lady Jackets 16-11 in the third quarter cut into the Nicholas lead to 50-30.

Denkins grabbed a rebound and Hatton threw in a free throw to give Nicholas a 53-35 advantage with 6:05 left in the game.

Amy Allen fired in a jumper for the Lady Indians.

Hatton scored in the paint, Earlywine scored off a Smoot assist then followed with a free thro a steal which lead to a layup and Hatton ended the stretch the drive with a layup off a Schanding tip.

Coach Barbara Kenney started to clear the bench and coasted to a 70-47 victory over 10th region foe Montgomery County.

Kenney said, "We started the game hot for two quarters.

"In the third quarter we cooled off a little, but came back.

"I'm very pleased with the balanced scoring of the team and the play from Tacy (Earlywine) showing her senior leadership.

"Nikki Smoot and Christie Hatton both had a very good game. Also the entire played well.

"Montgomery County is a good team, who defeated Bourbon County by 15 points earlier in the season.

"It was good to see the substitutes get some playing time."

The Lady Jackets extended their record to 7-1 and Montgomery County dropped to 3-4 on the season.

Nicholas County travels to Paris for a district matchup with the Lady Greyhounds on Thursday night, and entertain Fleming County on Monday night.

Earlywine led Nicholas with 17, Hatton followed with 15, Smoot had 16, Denkins added 11, Barton had 7 and two each for Linville, Alicia Sibert, and Tara George.

In junior variety action the Lady Jackets defeated Montgomery 38-21.

Jennifer Willoughby 7, Tawnya Livingood and George 6, Schanding 5, Sibert and Michella Hopkins 2.

Daniel Brown carried home top honors in the awards ceremony of the Greenup County Tournament. The one trophy Brown missed, the award for most rebounds, was picked up by Bluejacket Jamie Simons.

Jackets advance in Bath tourney

By Pam Bowlen
Of The Carlisle Mercury Staff

OWINGSVILLE — The Nicholas County Jackets advanced to the second round of the Bath County Tournament on Wednesday night downing Rose Hill Academy 71-57.

The Jackets on Thursday will face the winner of the Menifee County-Lee County winner being played Wednesday night.

If the Jackets win on Thursday they will advance to Friday night action.

In the other first round games Bath County will entertain Ville Madonna and Lewis County Auguste.

The Royals fought the Jackets to the end of the clock if it had been working. The scoreboard clock didn't work so the scorekeepers had to shout the time out manually.

The Jackets scored the first six points of the game and Rose Hill fired in a three pointer.

Nicholas County's Jarrod Wills hit jumper and Daniel Brown scored in the paint to push the lead to 10-5.

Brown ended the first quarter with a three pointer to give Nicholas a 19-10.

The Jackets opened the second quarter with a 9-0 rally to extend the lead to 26-10.

Reporting Period for Real Estate and Personal Property

The time to report any changes (or no changes) on your real estate is January 1, 1992 through March 1, 1992. Changes in ownership, changes in mailing address, any additions to existing homes, new houses, mobile homes coming into or being moved out of the county, should all be reported so the correct information can be used for the 1992 tax roll.

Now is also the time to apply for the Homestead Exemption (own your home, live in it, and will turn 65 years old this year), the Disability Homestead (own your home, live in it, and receiving total disabitiy) and the AgricultureDeferment Exemption on a farm (must be used for farming, not land development). Only one Homestead Exemption is available per family.

Tangible and intangible property must be reported between January 1 and April 15, 1992. THERE ARE NO EXTENSIONS ON FILING FOR PROPERTY TAX! Businesses should report inventories, equipment, manufacturing machinery, leased equipment, etc. on the Personal Property Tax Form mailed to them by the Revenue Cabinet. Any person owning intangible property such as stocks, bonds, notes, mortages, cash in out-of-state banks, accounts receivable, etc. should report these on the Intangible Property Tax Return which will be mailed from my office. If you do not understand these forms, please stop by the office or call, we will try to help you.

If you are not able to come in during regular office hours, please call my office and make an appointment convenient for you. If you are unable to come to the office, I will try to handle your business over the phone.

The office of the Property Valuation Administrator is located in the basement of the Nicholas County Courthouse.

8:30 - 4:30 Monday - Friday
9:00 - 12:00 Saturday (January 4 - February 29 only)
