Church Corner

The following is an article written by a local church official, and does not necessarily reflect the views or opinions held by The Carlisle Mercury or Park Communications, Inc.

By Rev. Robert Allen
Pastor, Rose Hill and Saltwell Churches

Sitting in my study thinking about what to share with you this week. One day in my devotion I read the following article and trust that it will help each one of us to get more out of church.

Read the following by Norman Vincent Peale, Editor-In-Chief of Guidepost and thought it would be food for all of us.

How to get more out of church.

Go with a sense of anticipation. Have a smile ready for everyone. Church should not be a place of gloom.

Plan to arrive at least 15 minutes early so that you will enter church relaxed, with time for meditation.

Avoid conversation before the services.

Pray for all the needs of all those about you: family, friends, strangers, ushers, choir, the minister.

Try to eliminate any feelings you might have of criticism, ill will or resentments. Such emotions block the flow of spiritual power.

Go, expecting to find the answer to some need of your own. Be ready to find it in the words of the hymn, the Scripture, a prayer or the sermon.

If it is hard for you to focus on God, think of a beautiful and peaceful scene of nature. God created it. How great and wonderful He is! To make God seem more personal, picture Jesus looking at you with out stretched hands of love and welcome.

Expect something exciting to happen to your spiritual life-or someone else's-every Sunday morning and Sunday evening and every prayer meeting. If you believe it will happen and pray for it to happen, it will happen.

Brookshire makes Deans List

Robyn Anne Brookshire, a junior at Transylvania University and a graduate of Nicholas County High School, has been named to the dean's list for the 1993 fall term.

A student must achieve at least a 3.5 grade point average during the term to be named to the dean's list.

Brookshire, a philosophy major, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rodney L. Brookshire of Carlisle.

Transylvania was founded in 1780 and is the nation's sixteenth oldest institution of higher learning. For the past six years, U.S. News and World Report has ranked Transylvania among the top five regional liberal arts colleges in the South, including the number one ranking this year and in 1989.

WILSON

Leonard Henry Wilson, 83, Mt. Sterling, formerly of Nicholas County, husband of Nellie Gaunce Wilson, died Thursday, January 13, 1994 at St. Joseph Hospital in Lexington.

He was born in Nicholas County to the late James and Rose Wagoner Wilson, was a retired farmer and furniture upholsterer, and a member of the Irvingsville Baptist Church.

Other survivors are a half-brother, James O. Whirles, Cynthiana and several cousins.

He was preceded in death by a son, Leonard Allen Wilson.

Services were 10:30 a.m. Monday, January 17, 1994 at Mathers-Gaunce Funeral Home by Rev. James Gaunce with burial in Carlisle Cemetery.

Casketbearers were Roger Hamilton, Jimmie Whirles, Woodie and Clay Mynear, Eugene Neal, and Marion Kearns.

ASBURY

Ginger Ann Asbury, 21, daughter of George F. and Mary Imogene Wagoner Asbury, of 152 Brentsville Road, Paris, died Friday, January 14, 1994 at her residence.

Other survivors are two sisters, Michelle Lynn Morris, Carlisle and Pamela Jean Asbury, Bourbon County; maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene H. Wagoner, Nicholas County.

Services were 3 p.m. Sunday, January 17, 1994 at Mathers-Gaunce Funeral Home, Carlisle, by Rev. James Gaunce with burial in Mt. Pleasant Cemetery, Harrison County.

Casketbearers were Tony Asbury Jr., Jeff Asbury, Ray Willoughby, Mike Willoughby, Timmy Willoughby, and Bobby Watkins.

BOOTS

Anna Belle Grey Boots, 69, of 3120 Arrowhead Drive, Lexington and formerly of Georgetown, wife of George Boots, died Thursday, January 13, 1994 at the St. Joseph Hospital in Lexington.

She was a member of Carlisle United Methodist Church and was born in Nicholas County to the late Leon Grey Sr. and Della Mae Honaker.

Other survivors are two sons, Roger Boots, Lexington; a daughter, Georgana Riddell, Nicholasville; a brother, James Henry Grey, Cynthiana; four grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by a son, Jerry Wayne Boots and a brother, Leon Grey Jr.

Funeral services were 10:30 a.m. Saturday, January 15, 1994 at Mathers-Gaunce Funeral Home, Carlisle by Rev. James Doughton with burial in Carlisle Cemetery.

Casketbearers were Andrew and Sarah Riddell, Steven and Christopher Boots, Bennie Dunn, and James C. Cannon.

Donations can be made to the American Heart Association or your favorite charity.

JACOBS

Beulah Shields Jacobs, 78, of 5194 Moorefield Road, Moorefield, died suddenly at her home January 12, of an apparent heart attack.

She was the daughter of the late William T. Shields and Bessy Grose, and she owned and operated a beauty shop.

She is survived by her husband, Angus Jacobs; one son, John Stanton Jacobs, of Lexington; one daughter, Betty Lynn Conrad, Lexington; one grandson, John Darwin Jacobs, Lexington; two sisters, Virgie Denton and Mary D. Short, both of Flemingsburg.

Services were 2 p.m. Friday, January 14 at Clark Funeral Home in Moorefield with Rev. Tom Lipscombe officiating. Burial was in Longview Cemetery, Bethel.

Pallbearers were Jack and Jeff Becker, J.W. Crump, Jimmy Conrad, Joe Denton, and Kimball Booth.

MANLEY

Addie America Hatton Manley, 92, died January 17 at Ridgeway Manor Nursing Home in Owingsville after a long illness. She was a native of Bath County, and a former resident of Nicholas County.

She was the wife of the late Elwood Manley.

She is survived by two sons, Earl Smith Manley, of Bath County, and Charles Ray Manley of Nicholas County. One son precedes her in death, Howard Wells Manley.

Four daughters, Mable Riggs, Ruby Kathleen Laughlin, Anna Marie Hawkins, all of Nicholas County. One daughter precedes her in death, Mary Emma Manley. One brother, James Richard Hatton of Carlisle.

Mrs. Manley leaves behind 10 grandchildren, 19 great-grandchildren, and 8 great-great grandchildren.

Funeral services will be conducted Friday at 2 p.m. at the Clark Funeral Home in Moorefield, with the Reverend Earl Manley officiating.

Mrs. Manley's grandsons will serve as pallbearers, with interment in the Crown Hill Cemetery in Sharpsburg.

Miranda Homemakers meet

Miranda Homemakers

The Miranda Homemakers met Wednesday, January 12 at the county extension office. The meeting was called to order by President Margaret Wade. Devotion was given by Mary Lou Clinkenbeard. Roll called with ten members present answering The Greatest Joy During Christmas. We adjourned and enjoyed a delicious pot luck lunch.

After lunch the president called the meeting to order. Minutes were read and approved. Treasurers report was given.

President Margaret Wade gave report of meetings coming up in the next few months.

The lesson was given by Frances Taylor on Guidelines for Greeting Accessories which was very interesting. We played two games. Meeting adjourned.

The next meeting will be February 9 at the extension office at 11:30 a.m. with pot luck lunch.
