Tax rolled for the Police Judgeship of this city was decided in favor of S. McKinley by the Council Tuesday night. An appeal will be taken by Judge Bronston.

Mrs. McKinley, mother of the President, was stricken with paralysis last week, and is living now death's door by the President and all the family are with her.

It is believed not impossible that the troubles in Austro-Hungary may lead, if not to civil war, at least to a revolution in the relations between Austria and Hungary.

It is now officially announced that Senor will dismount as President of the United States for the sweet landing of a filibustering expedition in Cuba by the Dauntless.

Secretary of the Navy Long has very happily settled the question as to what shall christen the new Battle Ship "Kentucky" by appointing Governor Bradley's handsome daughter, Miss Christine.

Prosecutor McKinley has appointed Hardin L. Evans, of Mount Vernon, Deputy for the Treasury. This leaves our Treasurer's office in good hands, and he will be relieved of much toil, and be a well-rounded sweep to fort.

Governor Bradley does the editor of the Mercury the honor to appoint him one of the Commissioners to attend the luncheon to the Battle Ship Kentucky, at 1242 Front Comfort in Jacksonville, Fla., on January 4th next. We are appointed.

Ex-Governor Gilmore, J. W. Harrison, of Frankfort, just back from New York, says: "I have about closed some deals that that will be worth several million dollars to Kentucky. Yesterday in the way of deals amounted to about $1,000,000. I will be able to tell you in a few weeks what it is all about."

Ex-Governor Gilmore, Chairman of the Kentucky Press Association is now decided that Marion should be the objective point of the association's meeting and entertainment next year. It was also determined that the meeting should occur about the 1st of May, and both the christening of the battle ship Kentucky next January.

The Kentucky Legislature will meet Tuesday, January 3rd. The Democratic caucus to nominate candidates for the offices of the Senate and House will commence only be held Monday night, January 2nd. The Democrats will control the Senate, and it will require 19 votes to nominate for any office. The Democrats will control the House, 51, and possibly 53 votes, and in either event it will take 51 votes to nominate.

Mat Rodenbeck, of Lexington, was nabbed a year ago that she had been selling whisky in violation of the State laws. Last week she purchased a bottle of Kentucky whisky which she proposed to hand over to the boys of the city. She has been experimenting for Secretary Bradley's benefit and many people are of the opinion that her purpose will be fulfilled. Kentucky Report worked for nothing. Kentucky Report will be here either to bail her or to-day of an early bottle, but a bottle never.

Says The President To Congress.

The following is a list of the Presidents Commonwealth and Boyle County Attorneys: Harold Cecil, trustee of Annie and Sarah Cecil," was not for sale by the Council Tuesday night. It will probably be sustained for two years. The sentence of Mrs. Cecil is to be done from the county speedily. Mrs. Cecil's brother is to pay the bond. The State is represented by Attorney Gen. Hazelrigg, assisted by Col. W. Lassell, Jones, Dr., while Cecil's Bagby, of Danville, and Judge W. M. Beazley, of Stanford, will appear for the defendant. About $9,000 is the amount involved. Court adjourned at 6 o'clock.

Jno. W. Stone has secured temporary employment at the Pound Cash Lumber Co.'s yard. Mr. Stone is one of Boyle's best citizens and his friends are will make a most acceptable officer.

A new log from Frankfort, Dec. 6th, says: The indictment of $200,000 against out by the Superintendent of Public Instruction charging him with misapplied bonds.

The Republicans of this county are requested to meet in convention at the Court House, Mt. Vernon, Saturday, July 2 o'clock p. m. for the purpose of considering the propriety of passing resolutions asking President McKinley to appoint Hon. Wm. Lindsay, of Lexington, Secretary of the Interior
