Hon. W. A. Munroe, Hon. Claud Duncan, of Harrison, and Senator Gilkeson, three of our law-makers, left for Frankfort last Monday.

Mrs. M. Kinney, mother of the President, died at her home at Canton, O., on Saturday last. She was a most distinguished lady, was well, but at her death, and no more fulfilled an every witnessed the demise of a more faithful mother. The whole country mourns at sure and sympathizes with the President.

Those mentioned for the Democratic nomination for Congress from this district are Hon. Wm. Lindsay, of Ky., Hon. Jno. Young Brown, of Ky., Hon. Jno. C. Breckenridge, Richmond Williams, of Lafayette; Hiram Kennedy, of Carlisle; W. O. Ramsey, of Orangeburg; J. T. Hinton, of Cynthiana, with the balance of the district to be heard from—Maysville Call.

At Cincinnati all the small operators in the wheat market are standoffish in regard to the struggle between Armour and the Leiters. S. Armour has sold a large quantity of wheat, estimated at from 1,000,000 to 3,000,000 bushels, for December delivery at 85 cents, and is fighting to get it, while the Leiters are buying. Saturday at $1.06). Armour's agents are making the most of the break in the grain.

Last week we made notice of the need of a Pure Food Commission in this State; but no other paper seemed to have been struck with the idea. Then we noticed that the Legislature of Kentucky had by that act abolished it, to the detriment of the health and well-fare of the people. For the fine fixed that a sold by many dealers is made by in large portion of corn starch that can be sold at less than pure flour. Cannot goods are substituted, impure, and should be looked after, and the country Legislature should provide for a pure food commission. Health, instead of pelf, is to be looked to in the coming session of Winter.
