Pastor's Column

By Rev. Steve Smith

Fred Somebody, Thomas Everybody, John Anybody, and Andy Nobody were neighbors. However, they were not like you and me. They were odd people and most difficult to understand. The way they lived was a shame. All four belonged to the same church, but you couldn't have enjoyed worshiping with them.

Everybody went fishing on Sunday or stayed home to visit with family and friends.

Anybody wanted to worship, but was afraid Somebody wouldn't speak to him, so Nobody went to church.

Really, nobody was the only decent one of the four. Nobody did the visitation. Nobody worked on the church building. Once they needed an assistant janitor for a month. Everybody though Anybody would do it and Somebody thought Everybody would do it.

Now it happened that fifth neighbor (anunbeliever) came to live among them. Everybody thought Somebody would invite him to church. Anybody could have at least made an effort. But guess who finally went and invited him to our church? Right again--NOBODY!
