Saltwell News

By Mrs. Fred Hollar

Mr. and Mrs. Steve Kirby entertained a large group of children and several adults with a birthday party at Chucky Cheese place in Lexington on Sunday honoring the 4th birthday of their son Nathan.

The Methodist men and ladies will have their regular monthly meeting this Wednesday night at the church, May 21, 1 p.m. Supper will be served and Louise Gaunce will be program leader for the ladies, speaker for the men will be selected later.

Bob Kenney of Covington spent Saturday with Mrs. Gladys Kenney.

Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Tomblin and son Chip moved from Saltwell to Harrison County recently. Mr. and Mrs. Galen Benson and family of West Virginia, moved to the property vacated by them on Saturday night. We welcome them to our community.

Mrs. Kitty Hollar and Layne Hollar visited Sterling Hollar at Homestead Nursing Home in Lexington early in the week. Gary and Debbie Hollar also visited him on Saturday evening.

Mrs. Harry Rotz and Mrs. Deloris Caswell, Carlisle spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Gaunce and Amanda.

Our community extends sympathy to the families of Mrs. Sharon Young, Mrs. Donna Ecton Newman and Mrs. . J. Gaunce. All who have given up their loved one the past week.

Robert Thacker of Irvine, Ky. spent Sunday with his father Glen Thacker and sister Glenda and Susanne of Headquarters.

Chris Hollar of Richmond and John Lee Allison spent Saturday night and Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Gary Hollar, Ron Allison and Tracy also visited them in the evening and accompanied John Lee home.

Mrs. Vaughlan Mattox became ill at her home Sunday evening and was taken to the emergency room at Nicholas County Hospital. She was treated and returned home later that night.

Mrs. Phyllis Brady and cousin Don Adams enjoyed the gospel singing on Sunday afternoon by Rev. Charles Mealing at the Wagoners Chapel Methodist Church and also dined at Ponderosa later.

Mrs. Phyllis Brady spent Monday afternoon with her sister, Marjorie Fryman, Cynthiana, and visited Glenda Thacker-on Wednesday.

Memorial Day will be held at Mt. Pleasant Church this Sunday, May 25. Lunch will be served at noon and Rev. James Gaunce will be the speaker at 2 p.m. and there will be special singing. All are welcome.
