Hunt nets 25 but Jackets fall by 5 in OT

By DENVER BROWN
Sports Editor

Nicholas County battled back from five down in the final period to tie things at the end of regulation Tuesday night in Carlisle - but visiting Bracken County outplayed the Jackets 10-5 in overtime to sneak away with the win, 65-60.

The hosts found themselves in a three-point hole after the opening period to Bracken (3-11) but shaved the deficit to 23-22 at halftime.

In a back-and-forth second half, Bracken County went up by as much as a half-dozen before head coach Bobby Storie's Jackets pulled back into the game. Nicholas County (8-9) won the final period (they had to) 18-13 to send the clash into the extra period.

But Jacket senior Forrest Hunt's 25 points was not enough on the night as the hosts couldn't pull out the overtime win.

B.J. Tincher finished with 13 points as the only other Jacket in double digits. Josh Fryman had nine, Jay Grant added six, Seth Saunders put in three and Jacob Broderick and Stuart Baird each connected on a bucket.

The loss kept Nicholas County from getting over .500 on the season. They'll get the chance to even their mark this Friday for Homecoming when the Raceland Rams come to Carlisle. Tip off is scheduled for 6 p.m. for the junior varsity game and the varsity battle gets underway at 7:30 p.m. The coronation will be conducted at halftime of the varsity game and the dance immediately follows the basketball action.

After a sluggish first half, the Nicholas County girls' basketball team turned up the offensive intensity after the break to run away from Menifee County Saturday afternoon. The second-half burst gave the Lady Jackets the 49-36 victory in Carlisle and their third win of the season.

The visiting Lady Cats held coach Nikki Smoot's club to just six points in the first quarter. Nicholas County won the second by a point but was still down 21-20 at halftime.

Double-digit scoring in the third and fourth periods gave the Lady Jackets the commanding win. A dozen points in the third and 17 in the final eight minutes handed Smoot's bunch the 13-point win.

Senior guard Whitney Massey knocked down a night-high 15 points for Nicholas County. The club's only other senior, Heather Howard, added eight points. Beth Grimes added seven, Heather Treadway and Ashley Hamilton each had six, Whitney Gray finished with five and Courtney Dale put in a field goal.

Nicholas County dismantled Silver Grove on Jan. 10 in the Class 'A' Tournament for the second win of the season. The club was led by a pair of double digit scorers and a big night on the boards.

The Lady Jackets were up 28-18 at halftime and went on to win 51-34. Massey led all scoring with 19 points and Hamilton had 15. Howard muscled down 14 rebounds and scored six points. Dale dished a season-best seven assists and Massey grabbed six steals.

The girls in blue and white used a 13-3 third quarter to widen their margin over Silver Grove.

The Lady Jackets host Paris tonight (Thursday) and travel to Bracken County Monday night, Feb. 5.
