CLUB FROM FRONT

years; Pam Randolph, James Galbraith and Joyce McFarland are board members for one year each.

The Nicholas County club joins with over 300,000 Kiwanians in more than 8,000 clubs in over 80 countries.

The club's regularly scheduled meetings will be held on Thursdays at 7 p.m., in the Carlisle Christian Church, located at 242 Locust Street.

The charter banquet and installation of officers is tentatively set for June 7. The location of the banquet will be announced after the next meeting, when it is officially set.

The objectives of the new Kiwanis Club are as follows:

• To give primary attention to the human and spiritual, rather than to the material values of life.

• To encourage the daily living of the Golden Rule in all human relationships.

• To promote the adoption and application of higher social, business and professional standards.

• To develop and present an example for a more intelligent, aggressive and serviceable citizenship.

• To provide a practical means to form enduring friendships, to render altruistic service and to build a better community.

• To cooperate in creating and maintaining that sound public opinion and high idealism which make possible the increase of righteousness, justice, patriotism and goodwill.

Kiwanis Clubs participate in helping fund Little League programs, raising money to fund supplies for nursing homes, raise money for Toys for Tots, Project Graduation, Habitat for Hamanity, fire departments, EMS, Relay for Life, Adopt-A-Highway, alcohol and drug addiction programs, 4-H, marching band boosters, Hospice, trips for underprivileged children and March of Dimes, just to name a few.

To learn more about Kiwanis or becoming a member, call Johnson at 859-987-7777.

Menifee inmate dies in Montgomery detention center

By KIM HAMILTON
News Editor

A Menifee County man who was incarcerated at the Montgomery County Detention Center, died in the jail on Thursday, May 3, around 5:30 a.m., police said.

Kentucky State Police said Paul E. McCarty, 36, of Frenchburg, was found unresponsive in his cell by a deputy jailer.

An autopsy was performed in Frankfort on Friday, May 4, with preliminary results indicating that the victim died from asphyxiation by hanging.

No foul play is suspected and the Mt. Sterling case remains under investigation by Det. David Owen.

Bath prom DJ's arrested

By KIM HAMILTON
News Editor

They allegedly were spinning more than just tunes.

Two disc jockeys who were hired to play music at the Bath County prom Saturday night, May 5, were arrested on drug and alcohol related charges, according to police.

Kentucky State Police said Joshua Brown, 26, of Lexington, was charged with public intoxication, second degree possession of drug paraphernalia and unlawful possession of a weapon on school property.

Adron Clements, 27, also of Lexington, was charged with possession of marijuana and possession of drug paraphernalia.

The incident unfolded shortly before 11 p.m., when a 911 call was dispatched to the Bath sheriff's office.
