Announcements.

We are authorized to announce E. F. STEVENS a candidate for Assessor at the November Election, 1897.

FOR REPRESENTATIVE.

We are authorized to announce H. B. LAWSON, of Nicholas, as an independent candidate for Representative from the counties of Nicholas and Bourbon, who, if elected, pledges himself to introduce a bill requiring the taxation of State and county officers.

WHEAT has "slumped," and the big headlines in the gold bug dailies have "slumped" with it.

HON. HARRY KENNEY will attend the meeting of the Democratic State Central Committee at Lexington to-day.

UNDER the decision of Attorney-General Taylor, the tobacco tax will be no more than five per cent of the total vote of the State in November last for those candidates for Congress, will have their names entered on the official ballot without petitioning.

H. B. LAWSON, late Private Secretary to Mr. Carlisle, and Deputy Auditor, will assume charge of the Auditor's office Monday. The auditorship moves out of the residence of the recently suspended banker, firm of Canty & Co., in which Van Swearingen is the company.

THE Louisville Courier-Journal is telling great tales about the big crowds gold-bug Hindman is having in southern Kentucky, and is filling the columns with fake letters to show that Silver Democrats who have "returned" to the field of gold-bugism are doing so because no issues of knowing how many people are attending Gen. Hindman's meetings, but we are willing to wager a few cents on that being a "head" case in the hot weather.

PETTUS, governor-elect, was inquired of as to what he thought about the proposition of the new Constitution, and not only answered that he had not read it, but also of the word proposition. From very early childhood, Governor Pettus is probably the strongest reason why we have a State Fair. But he stepped into the wide concern in the legislature, and has made a record in the way he were wrong, and it is not at all probable that he will have to do so.

WAKING UP.

The Frankfort correspondent of the Louisville Courier-Journal, writing under his paper last Monday says:

The farmers of Kentucky have waked up to the situation described in the Courier-Journal of several days ago. They have learned that they are responsible for the tobacco trust, and that their welfare is the creation of the Democratic Constitution, they have also learned that the Democratic party, in control of legislation, such as the Mob Bill, and the Separate Coach Bill, is responsible for such legislation as will the Secretary of State.

While Judge Tilford and the Maysville delegation have succeeded in securing the location of the New Constitution, and not only added to the wealth and prosperity of one of the worst populations ever enfranchised, but they have probably the strongest reason why the people should ratify the work. Without the wide concern in the legislature, but the wide concern in the legislature, but the wide concern in the legislature, but
