Chappell & Collier,
CITY STORE.

Once in a while, but often, we have a severe drought, it is the first time since '81. This we feel compelled to add to the cattle in the month of August, and the rains began in the latter part of September and we had fine grazing all Winter—we had no lack. So it is, this drought will prove a blessing not only for all it seems no previous time.

Perhaps it will result in one or two failures giving the city an attention well, or providing for the great need of factoring water works for all the people.

Talk about railroads and telephones, which are all good and useful and convenient but Carlie says, Water works at any season is a life coat, and we should have some standing water in the city. But then we don't want dry weather all the time, but we do want dry times all the time, and we want them when they come, and we want them when they come, and we want them when they come.
