Wedding

Elizabeth Boswell and Adam Smith will be united in marriage on June 26, 2009 during a sunset ceremony on the beach on Okaloosa Island, Florida.

The bride is the daughter of Gene and Charlene Boswell of Lewisport, Kentucky. She is a 2000 graduate of Hancock County High School. She earned a bachelor's degree in Psychology from Campbellsville University in 2004 and a master's degree in Elementary Education from Eastern Kentucky University in 2007. Elizabeth is a kindergarten teacher for Fayette County Public Schools in Lexington, Kentucky.

The groom is the son of Keith and Joyce Smith of Cynthiana, Kentucky. He is the grandson of Ishmael and Wyoma Smith and James and Phyllis Gaunce and the late Carolyn Scott Gaunce. He is a 1999 graduate of Harrison County High School. He earned his bachelor's degree in Geology from the University of Kentucky in 2004. Adam is employed as a geologist for Stantec, an engineering consulting firm in Lexington.

After a honeymoon in Hawaii, the couple will live in Lexington. A reception will be held at the St. Columba Catholic Church reception hall in Lewisport on Saturday, July 11 at 5:00 p.m. CST. All friends and family are invited.

Farmer Of The Month

Buddy Applegate of Moorefield Road in Carlisle Ky has a passion and love of farming. It has been passed down through generations in his blood to be a farmer. He says truck driving is his job and farming is his hobby. He says this because if farming would pay his bills he would put it number 1 on his list and do farming only. Farming is a stress reliever for him when he gets out of his semi and can work the land, he's at peace with nature. He has a 35 acre farm, 5 acres of it is hay and he raises beef cattle. He rents another 120 acre farm and raises hay on it. His dream is to pass on the farm to his son and grandchildren, and for them to have the love of the land as he does. He says there's on ething God doesn't make any more of and that's land. So we should all take an interest in it and protect and care for it and then pass it on. And he said all that before you ever heard of generation green.

His wife of 30 years is Teresa (Mitchell) and they have lived on this farm since 1992. Teresa was originally from Nicholas County but Buddy was from Tollesboro, Ky. where he previously farmed at before they moved here. Their son Chad lives on the farm in the original farm house built in 1912. There was a fire in 2003 and had to rebuild most of it. Chad has a partner Stacy and they have five children between their separate marriages. Chad Haue 8, Kamilya 6, Blake 5 and Stacy-Landong 9, Izak 7. The grandchildren I learning to work on the farm and learn responsibilities. Chad started at a very early age and learned quickly how to work responsibly on a farm as well. Starting children young and learning them the basics, help children later in life. Safety is very important on a farm. Buddy hopes they can individually do what their passion is in life, and he hopes some or all will live farming as he does. He hopes to retire someday and enjoy working his farm.

Jury

case, meaning it could eventually become a federal case, as Shadoan was charged under a federal arrest warrant after Paris police said they found about two dozen child pornography videos on a compact disc in his truck. The videos, showing minors having sex, were "mailed, shipped or transported in interstate commerce," according to a federal criminal complaint.

Shadoan allegedly passed both state and federal criminal background checks.

In 2005 he was accused of sodomy by an adult student while on an Outward Bound event in Pulaski County. The school system terminated him from his job teaching at North Middle School. In 2006 a jury found him not guilty of the sodomy charge.
