Good crowds of residents and others were in the lobby of Johnson Mathers Health Care each day the past week for the special activities for "Nursing Home Week." Wednesday is always special with the Memorial Services. Candles are lit in memory of those who passed away the past year. There were 53. Those from this area were Fred Hollar and Pauline Jenkins and formerly from here were Francis Broderick and Mildred Green. Other activities included an Elvis impersonator, an ice cream social, a fish fry, singing by the Thursday group and on Friday the Glen Thacker players and singers. Sharon Beckett has been the activity director there for 35 years and Sueann Morgan received a necklace for being an assistant for 5 years.

Danita Earlywine and Aiden had dinner on Mothers Day wither grandmother, Alberta Snapp Glass.

Mrs. Leah Doyle Riggle and David, Lucille Plummer, Doris Doyle and Phyllis Brady and others of the family enjoyed "The American Idol" singing contest held at Rohs Theatre, Cynthiana, on Friday night. There are two more weeks and Stacey Riggle, 16, a very good singer is still in the running. It is conducted like the J.V. Program.

Get will wishes go to Faye Buzzard who is not well and is facing surgery in June.

Phyllis Brady visited several the past weeks. They were Mrs. Tommy Fryman at Edgemont Nursing Home , Daley Kennedy at his home, Francis Smith at Johnson Mathers, Brenda Nolen Cynthiana, and Marjorie Fryman, Bridgett Davis and Little Shelby.

Brenda Routt brought a good message at Headquarters Church Sunday. She and husband Ruben, had several doctor appointments the past week (and this week too) and she preached 2 funerals the past week.

A large crowd attended the Nicholas County Cancer Coalitions "Celebration of Life", Brunch held at Carlisle Methodist Church on Saturday, with speaker Dian Davidson on WLEX-TV.

A very large crowd attended the "Caring Hearts" cook out, horse ride, auction, etc. on Saturday. This is a very worthy cause and is for helping physically handicapped children.
