cancer
They say it takes a village. And that two heads are better than one. At Harrison Memorial Hospital, we couldn't agree more.
That's why we work hand in hand with the region's leader in cancer care -- the physicians and researchers of University of Kentucky Markey Cancer Center.
Our full-time oncologist James Morgan, M.D. leads the partnership right here in Cynthiana. And our state-of-the-art chemotherapy suites at Harrison Memorial Hospital eliminate the hassle of driving great distances for multiple treatments.
So what does that mean for our patients? More accurate and timely diagnoses, treatment plans devised by not just one, but an entire team of medical specialists, and cutting-edge cancer research all leading to a cure.
