OF HARRISON CO.

The Chinese refuse to accept the Peace hand extended by U. S. and Powers and continue to fight the Seamands where over their hold there. The U. S. should give them a good whipping and take the island and open it to all nations alike eventually.

Miss Helen Gould has given $10,000 to be used in purchasing defensive forts and warships to protect N. Y. harbor. Ford, L. I. So she need her check for protection, a hundred miles this side of the east and has never been engaged in the strife. It is strange to hear that her defenders will attempt at more than two hundred thousand dollars.

Republican candidate for the Congress in the Second district, endorsing Roosevelt's policy of complying with the Goebel election law and refusing Mr. Bryan's offer to run policy of electing the law in Kentucky.

Yesterday about John C. McLean's the Democratic Executive committee met and decided to call the Democratic State Convention to meet at Louisville on Wednesday, Sept. 7th. The Seventh Congressional District Convention will meet the day before, September 6th, and all will have a large delegation. Now, now, now is the time for every Democrat to get busy. The President and the Surgeon General of the U. S. Navy have ordered a full investigation into the charges of cruelty to the splendid lieutenant Jesse Rainsford Sprague, U. S. N., who was court-martialed at Annapolis, Md., on a charge of drunkenness, and was convicted. The splendid lieutenant was dismissed from the service by the order of the Navy Department, and a number of officers of the court-martial ordered to be stricken from the rolls of the Naval Academy. Now, it is said, the splendid lieutenant was not drunk, but was the victim of a conspiracy. Now, if this be true, the officers who ordered the court-martial and the officers who composed the court-martial should be dismissed from the service, and the splendid lieutenant should be restored to his rank in the Navy.
