THURSDAY, DEC. 15, ... 1898

The thermometer registered 6 below zero at this place yesterday morning.

Gen. Jno. B. Castleman is being mentioned as a candidate for Governor.

The Treaty of Peace between the United States and Spain was signed at Paris Saturday.

Gen. Fitzhugh Lee is mentioned for the vacancy in the Supreme Court bench.

Col. Sam McKee, a prominent farmer during the war and the years just following, died at Louisville this week.

Gen. Gomez lived 60 years in Spain stricken Cuba and died in less than a month after he came to the United States.

The Fort Kentucky Regiment of Infantry was mustered out of the United States service and mustered in Kentucky, Saturday.

At the conclusion of a single race at Latonia last week the judges declared the race a dead heat, and Starter Caywood, the official in charge, declared that the race would be run over. Democratic rule, you see.

Gen. Joe Wheeler has had an operation made. It looks like it ought to have manufactured a new brain worker with in these three months.

Ex-Governor Owsley is in Washington after the adjournment of John Sherman's Committee. The place needs a Democratic Governor, and we hope Owsley will be appointed at once to fill the vacancy.

Next Controller Holmes will probably be the most talked of man in Kentucky. Governor Bradley will have to appoint his successor, and the office is worth $5,000 a year, and has a lot to do with politics.

Gen. Garrard Dead.

Washington, Dec. 11.—Gen. Garrard, Commander of the Military Division of the Gulf, died here this morning. He had been in bad health for some time. Death was due to old age. Gen. Garrard was born in Kentucky, and was graduated from West Point in 1841. He served in the Mexican war, and was brevetted for gallant and meritorious service at Buena Vista. He is survived by two sons.

It is not intended that there shall be any striking manifestation of rejoicing over the ratification of the treaty of peace with Spain, and hence it will be signed, sealed and delivered without any blowing of horns or firing of guns.

Jno. Keller and the editor of the Mercury are very handsome under the same roof and vine, and we are delighted to say that the former is also handsome for the other. May her days be many and her nights peaceful and restful.
