FORESTER'S NEWS LETTER.

FT. SILL, Ind. Ter., Jan. 29, '80.

If this Legislature would get to talking it would be no hard job to supply it with a subject. It has not been doing a great deal. There is now in session but a small amount of work. The Jailors vs. Bryan and Blackburn are no nearer now than the little, bundled, of Parliament since no part and but little inferred to the preceding. The Republican lawyers cannot be expected to be very cheerful with William Henry Jones as their "leader." Jones is Pro-tem of something of Kentucky. He is a quiet, unassuming man and is no orator, but he is a good deal of a politician. He is a man who can't afford to be on the wrong side of questions. In playing them this way now Bill Jones, 3rd grandchild, and brother, Bill Jones 2nd, is made a bunch of killfolks.

Things are not altogether and how Democratic majority of Kentucky Jailors recently introduced Dr. Kincaid to North to abolish the office of Superintendent General of Public Instruction. Last Tuesday Col. Baldwin, "Kid" Baldwin, "Colonel King," and Col. Alcon the "King of the Borders" and a few others called on Capitol Hotel.

"Jack," said the Traveler host, "you're treading with caution and strategy." "Just a little," said the Colonel. "I—knickers"

Now I've mentioned nothing here effectionately on Col. Chase should not look me to be offended. I'm not over sensitive about—

Just what the King of Sanders, Ky's Governor, is in State's prison?

And the Traveler, how indignantly retired to his room and wished I'd engage with Col. Chase on "Jack" next afternoon.

If this Democratic Legislature will vote the sentiment of the party, to Hon. J. C. S. Blackburn, he will practically nominate Proctor Knott Governor of Kentucky, and Senator Lindsay. The fact is that Blackburn is the strongest man the party has. Senatorial fight at present. Knott for whom nothing, more to and should be beaten by Blackburn. Blackburn is another like the Napoleon's, many of us would be glad to see him Senator of Jackson, who requested that if the County had to have a statue of the Father and put on the Circuit, the Legislature would name it "Old Hickory" and not Everything now looks blue and I am not going to write it.

Senator Voorhees is now in Washington and is a candidate for re-election next, after Blackburn is elected. Should the president find he will be by no means unanimously renominated. Delano in Ohio, Blaine in Maine, and that President will be a candidate. He will not accept any right to the nomination. Grant will be the Republican candidate. Grant is the Kentucky politics that Gov. Blackburn will always be a candidate for the Senate, and will be one of the happy Democrats who will vote for him. Grant will be the Republican candidate. Grant will be the Republican candidate. Grant will be the Republican candidate
