NAVAL COMBAT OFF HAYTI.

THREE SPANISH WARSHIPS AND FOUR AMERICAN SCOUTS CLASH.

CAPE HAYTIEN, HAYTI, June 5, 7:40 p. m.—The United States troop ship Resolute, formerly the Yorktown, under convoy of the torpedo boat destroyer Macfarlane (converted Ogden Gowdey yatch of the same name), arrived at Mole St. Nicholas yesterday and departed shortly after. Advices from Mole St. Nicholas say that yesterday (Saturday) some distance off Jean Rabel, a seaport on the northwest coast of Hayti, half way between Port-de-Paix and Mole St. Nicholas, a combat took place between three Spanish and four American war ships. The American ships are said to have withdrawn from the combat.

One of the Spanish war ships entered the harbor of Jean Rabel for water. The others, one of ships laying at Mone St. Nicholas were extremely reticent. Jean Rabel is an inconsiderable seaport, and there is no telegraph station there. It is thought possible that the Spanish ships encountered were the vanguard of the Cadiz fleet. The names of the American ships are not ascertained, but it is believed here that they were scouts.

TERRIBLE REPORTED SUNK.

KINGSTON, JAMAICA, June 5, 11 p. m.—A dispatch from Port Antonio says: A vessel that has arrived here from Santiago de Cuba reports that an American ram sunk on Friday night the Spanish torpedo boat destroyer Terror. The assumption, based upon dispatches from Madrid, has been that the destroyer Terror, after leaving Fort de France, went to Porto Rican waters, and it is probable that the Port Antonio dispatch confuses her with her sister destroyer, the Furor, as has occurred times been the case in dispatches from other points.

The story of the daring exploits of Lieut. Hobson and his brave followers in Santiago harbor grows in glory as more and more of the exploit are made known. Hobson himself planned the enterprise. He and his volunteers did not expect to survive, and were prepared for death, but did not meet it.

The original plan was abandoned because of the closely watch of the Spaniards. It was intended that the Merrimac was to steam at full tilt in a blockade runner, followed by a launch containing explosives in the hope of steering the boat ahead after the fuses were lighted, and then jumping to the water. Hobson's men were to follow in a small boat.

But because of the Spanish vigilance the plan was changed. The Merrimac was to be sunk in the channel, and Hobson and his men were to be picked up by launches from the fleet. The Merrimac was sunk as planned, but Hobson and his men were compelled to abandon the launch and take to the water. Hobson's men were picked up by the launches from the fleet.

AN ADDRESS

BY THE FISCAL COURT.

To the Tolerated Nicholas County:

At the regular April Term, 1898, the Fiscal Court of Nicholas county made an order directing the submission of the question by the voters of the county at the next regular November election, as to whether or not there is favor of the location of a Court House, Jail, Asylum and maintain Turnpikes in this county, and thus establish a complete turnpike system for the county. All preceding our duties and responsibilities as a Court, both to the taxpayers and the public, we feel it incumbent on us, for their satisfaction, to state our reasons for taking this step.

We will begin by saying that at the November election, 1896, the question of a change of location of the County Seat of Nicholas county was submitted to the voters of the county. "Are you in favor of maintaining a system of free turnpikes and general roads" and the vote stood 1865 for and 400 against the proposition. It is useless in this connection to make an argument for or against the expressed wish of those who voted or the silence of those who refrained from voting. Sufficient it is to say that free turnpike roads and the location of the County Seat at Carlisle received the endorsement of a decisive majority of the voters of the county.

The next question that came before the Court was the Maysville & Lexington Railroad. Without entering into the merits of the question, or the justice of the remedy, and both have been fully discussed, and the question of subscription to the latter company's stock has been made to the county for each year, with their full quota issued to other appurtenances, the Fiscal Court has taken possession of the same, and been operating them free of toll for many a year, but still many of the citizens refuse to contribute one dollar in any way.

Then one of the interests of the county, Mr. Ace Wiggins has been sued by the county for the recovery of the Fiscal Court, disputing the validity of the subscription of purchase, and asking to have them set aside. These cases are still pending one in the Circuit Court, the other on appeal. They are hotly contested, and will produce long and expensive litigation, whatever may be such the result, unless a stop can be put to them in some way. This same litigation we have brought suits to recover from the present members of the Fiscal Court and the Sheriff and Treasurer, who have refused to pay over the money in their hands to the successors.

While not one of the present Magistrates had anything to do with making these two contracts, yet they feel that they are responsible for the same, and are not going to stand idly, and with honest judgment, in carrying out the law and will of the people expressed at the polls, and in order to put a stop to the further of lawlessness, endangering the lives of the officers of justice and destroying the good order of the county, the committee of the county, which had already taken charge of the matter, and

A Private Tollgate.

A former user here has a tollgate on his premises. He lets the public road run by his house, and then charges all who pass through. Nearly every one in Madison county's free gates wear out their horses' feet and their own patience to get to and from town, and will, we are sure, be glad to learn that the Fiscal Court has taken steps to relieve them of it by going about the toll nuisance with a view to its abolishment. Let all such agents and toll be be relieved on these roads, and the Fiscal Court will pay the amount to which they would be entitled to per Solomon.—Richmond Climax.

The solicitude of the Democratic papers is lost in its infancy. The roads are not where they are, but they are going to run as they are long until the Republicans get ready to change them.—Louisville Commercial.

Mr. CHAS. B. FOSTER, of Maysville, has discovered in connection with the democratic nomination for Congress in the North that "there seems to be an apprehensive sentiment in the district for anyone except Hon. J. S. Edwards of Maysville." Mr. Kehoe would doubtless make a strong candidate, but at this stage there seems to be no marked sentiment for any particular man. The excitement of war has killed politics for the time being.—Cynthiana Democrat.

WATCH FOR SPIES.

Spain Has Her Emissaries at Work in the United States.

Secret Service Bureau Using Every Means to Detect Persons Suspected of Treachery.

Spain has scores of spies at work in the United States, and John R. Wilkie, chief of the secret service bureau, has extra spread everywhere to entrap them. Wilkie is responsible for the safety of some of the United States during the war. They could tell the enemy of our movements and plans, and work upon others an attack would be effective.

Wilkie's men are on the watch for suspected spies have been made, all letters addressed to Spaniards in this country or people in Spain are kept by the dead letter office of the post office department, and all telegrams are scanned by all that interest to the government. The work is being done quietly, and the spies do not suspect that they are detected in the acts they are committing.

Wilkie's sleuths then shadow suspected persons and seek to secure evidence against them. When the evidence is complete the spies are watched and persons are taken to prevent them communicating with the enemy and aiding them in conducting the war against us.

Wilkie's men are scattered all over the country at this time. So don't imagine that the old house has gin up the fight. Or if, you will find us at the same c stand, always glad to welcome and provide everything in our line for our friendand patrons.

Diagram Clipper. It will do your hard good to make a visit to the nonsense, and examine the beautiful line of Spring and Summer Millinery now on display at the popular store of Mrs. Woodford. A great variety of styles to select from at this time of year and it is unusual for a small town to have so many novelties. Altogether, the Woodford Parlors has much to delight his heart.

Military Courage.

The manufacturers of medicines is a very strict state monopoly in France, and the sale of quack nostrums is ruthlessly imposed on all unauthorized persons. Recently a man was fined 100 francs and costs of court and sentenced to imprisonment for one week for the sale of a bottle of his "Remedy." Before he had a chance to pay the fine or go to jail he was again arrested for selling the same stuff, and was fined 200 francs and costs of court and sentenced to imprisonment for two weeks. Then he was arrested a third time, and was fined 500 francs and costs of court and sentenced to imprisonment for one month. Then he was arrested a fourth time, and was fined 1,000 francs and costs of court and sentenced to imprisonment for two months. Then he was arrested a fifth time, and was fined 2,000 francs and costs of court and sentenced to imprisonment for three months. Then he was arrested a sixth time, and was fined 4,000 francs and costs of court and sentenced to imprisonment for four months.
