Latest War News.

The troops have been slow getting off for Cuba, but on Thursday the fleet consisting of 25 transports and cutters and fourteen warships left Tampa. The number of men has not been allowed to be stated, but there must have been twenty-five or thirty thousand. The Kentucky regiments were not among them.

Fighting has been going on almost continually about the city of Santiago, 1,000 miles from west Santiago, and it has taken hard work to keep the Spaniards from capturing the camp. So far our men have had the best of the fighting, but have had several killed and wounded. It is claimed the Spaniards have had but little in their attacks, but the loss carried off by the dead and wounded is large.

The second expedition for the Philippines, carrying 2,500 troops, sailed from San Francisco Wednesday.

The rainy season has begun in the south. At this season the soldiers are having a very time of it. The first of the rainy season of Southern Cuba have been very severe were it was expected. No material set of storms have yet, but they must soon have set in, further to the north the hurricanes.

Rear Admiral Sampson is now in the Navy Department and that fleet. Blue personally said a landing near Santiago and on the east side of the city, shipped Admiral Cervera's fleet. The landing was effected by the part of the battalion of the marines of some of the marines, and the Spaniards were driven out Red Heights.

Tuesday the soldiers of the Third Kentucky Regiment were marched to Hagerstown to be mustered in as a unit of the regiment of which they have been comprising for some time. The officers and the regiment will see that the deficiency of land is made up.

General Eliason has decided to enlarge Lieut. Hobson and the men to speak for the American Marines prisoners of war bonds.

The daily papers publish bulletins of the movements of the American Marines prisoners of war.
