THE OLD City Store!
Chappell & Waugh, PROPRIETORS.

The Old Reliable City Store,

Whose name and fame throout Nicholas and adjoining counties is greater than that of Alexander parodies for the people and purchasing public.

How big was Alexander, Pa, that people called him great?
Could he o'ereach the CITY STORE where shoppers congregate?
Was he as large and tall a man as CHAPPELL is, or WAUGH?
And did he own as fine a store of goods and notions, Pa?

Was he in statue high enough above their stock to see,
When it is piled in such array that dazzles you and me?
They say he conquered many worlds, this giant grand and great,
But I've a notion of my own he wasn't up-to-date.

If Alexander was a gun to boom so long and loud,
It seems to me we'd hear of him wherever there's a crowd,
And that in old Carlisle we'd see his great descendants 'round
All flocking to the CITY STORE, where royal goods abound.

The Greatest Coke Road in the World Incorporated.

The Black Diamond Mineral & Timber Belt Railway was incorporated today at Carlisle, Ky., by Col. Albert E. Boone, of the Black Diamond system, together with the aid and co-operation of some of the best business men of Kentucky. The other incorporators are W. J. Kennedy, Mayor of Carlisle; Dr. M. Dills, M. V. Bostain, Frank H. Adair, Charles Tutt, and Hon. Hanson Kennedy, Carlisle; Dr. Geo W. Evans, Richmond; John C. C. Mayo, Paintsville.

This road is to be laid out to encircle the sixteen coal counties of Eastern Kentucky, and will run from Carlisle via Sharpsburg, Owingsville, West Liberty, Salyersville, Prestonsburg, Paintsville, Pikeville, Whitesburg, Harlen C. H., Pineville to Jellico Narrows on the line between states of Tennessee and Kentucky. Length of road 250 miles. The surveys will be pressed so as to get ready for construction by the last of the year. This road opens up not only the coking coals but immense veins of canel coal, veins ranging from two and one-half to five feet in thickness.
