G. R. KELLER & SON.

GEN. W. S. TAYLOR was inaugurated governor of Kentucky on Monday. He was sworn in by Judge Cantrill, of the Court of Appeals.

The Congressional election on the 7th district takes place next Monday. It looks like Nagle would be an easy winner.

The Bryan report several months ago for Hale and Beckham's place in the position of the nine Democratic governors of the British Isles seems to be getting in the fighting.

The Court of Appeals having decided that there was no Breathitt party, but that all Democrats belonged to the Democratic party, the Beckham-Breathitt scrap is all right.

Many persons express opinions regarding the Democratic contesting the seats of the late election, but it seems to us that the three of call for a special session of some wives, where all the chickens of Hamilton can meet and settle the matter to suit.

Democratic County Committee

The Democratic of Nicholas met in the courthouse yesterday last Saturday and elected the following committee for the ensuing two years: Eugene Hoover, S. B. Kennedy, Mollison Bramel, Henry Mann, Wm. Offutt, Jr., J. Lucille, Elue Lyles, Hayne Leagh, Jr., Tony Earles, Chas. McVey, Hamilton Jones, Arthur, Earl Tinsley, Jr., Ben Bramel, Jr., Wm. Hall, Jr., Buckner Green, Chas. and Valley, not known.

Democratic Meeting.

A number of Democrats of Nicholas met at the Court House on Saturday last and passed resolutions denouncing the action of the Democratic members of the late election and calling upon Senator Blackburn to use his influence to have the Democratic members of the Election Board removed from office. Democratic members of the Election Board removed from office. Democratic members of the Election Board removed from office.
