THE MERCURY.

PUBLISHED EVERY THURSDAY.

G. B. KELLER ... O. W. KELLER
KELLER & SON, Publishers

G. B. KELLER ... Editor
J. W. POWLING ... Foreman

SUBSCRIPTION RATES:

ENTERED AT THE CARLISLE POSTOFFICE AS SECOND CLASS MATTER.

THURSDAY, FEB. 2, 1899

The Weather.

During the past three or four days the entire country has been experimenting one of the coldest spells of weather that has been known for years. The fuel bill has suffered many millions of dollars and Kentucky has at it stripped. Tuesday and Wednesday the thermometer has ranged from ten to fourteen degrees below zero, and with a brisk wind to accompany it made it almost unbearable.

Hon. W. J. Stone, of Lyon county, has probably announced his candidacy for the Democratic nomination for Governor of Kentucky.

Attorney Paul H. Moore has sent out notices to a number of his clients that suits are to be brought against them, and embodying in the notice a request for settlement.

Passenger M. Kinney was 35 years old Sunday, and has been the recipient of many handsome tokens of the esteem of the American people. Eulogy nearly all the time bestowed upon the "Boy Orator."

Hon. W. Anderson, chairman of the Mason county Democratic committee is a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Governor. Mr. Anderson is one of the most brilliant and popular men in the state and will make a good candidate.

Rev. Jos. H. Sharp, of Paris, Kentucky, is engaged by the Orthographic Department of the Louisville Courier-Journal to lecture on the subject of orthography before the public schools in the district comprised of Bath, Fleming, Bourbon and Nicholas counties.

Mr. Moses Greenwood, of Greenwood, who has served the counties of Harrison and Nicholas as their representative for the past four years, has announced himself as a candidate for Governor subject to the action of the Democratic party. Mr. Greenwood is a fine gentleman and was one of the best members of the last legislature. He has a host of friends who will support him for the highest office in the gift of the people.

John Wilson, one of the Mt. Sterling lawyers, called upon the Democratic and Republican members of the legislature from Montgomery county, and requested them to vote for the passage of the Australian ballot law. Mr. Wilson is a member of the Democratic committee of Montgomery county, and is one of the most active workers in the party. He is also a member of the Democratic committee of the state, and is a warm friend of Governor Bradley. Mr. Wilson is a lawyer of fine ability, and is a gentleman of the highest character.

Gay and Festive Candidate.

The Democratic committee of Harrison county has called a primary election for March 11th to nominate a candidate for the Legislature. Hon. Louis Dodd, the well-mannered candidate and gentleman, has announced himself as a candidate for the nomination, subject to the action of the primary election. Mr. Dodd is a member of the present legislature, and his constituents of the last House, and of course would be pleased to have more effective service for the next term of one session.

Hon. Enoch A well-known short horn breeder has announced his candidacy for the Legislature in a letter now before us.

The Hon. W. H. McKee, who is the present Representative from Anderson county, will not offer for re-election. He made the statement in a speech at Lawrenceburg a few days ago.

Hon. W. P. Thorne, of Henry county, has announced himself a candidate for the Senate, and a clever gentleman will be a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Lt. Governor, and his friends are actions to see him have anything he desires.

O. T. Lowden, a successful farmer in Spencer county, has announced himself a candidate for the Democratic nomination for the Legislature in that county.

Hon. W. P. Thorne, of Henry county, has announced himself a candidate for the Senate, and a clever gentleman will be a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Lt. Governor, and his friends are actions to see him have anything he desires.

O. T. Lowden, a successful farmer in Spencer county, has announced himself a candidate for the Democratic nomination for the Legislature in that county.

Hon. W. J. Stone, of Lyon county, has probably announced his candidacy for the Democratic nomination for Governor of Kentucky.

Attorney Paul H. Moore has sent out notices to a number of his clients that suits are to be brought against them, and embodying in the notice a request for settlement.

Passenger M. Kinney was 35 years old Sunday, and has been the recipient of many handsome tokens of the esteem of the American people. Eulogy nearly all the time bestowed upon the "Boy Orator."

Hon. W. Anderson, chairman of the Mason county Democratic committee is a candidate for the Governor. Mr. Anderson is one of the most brilliant and popular men in the state and will make a good Governor.

Rev. Jos. H. Sharp, of Paris, Kentucky, is engaged by the Orthographic Department of the Louisville Courier-Journal to lecture on the subject of orthography before the public schools in the district comprised of Bath, Fleming, Bourbon and Nicholas counties.

Mr. Moses Greenwood, of Greenwood, who has served the counties of Harrison and Nicholas as their representative for the past four years, has announced himself as a candidate for Governor subject to the action of the Democratic party. Mr. Greenwood is a fine gentleman and was one of the best members of the last House, and of course would be pleased to have more effective service for the next term of one session