Lookout Mountain.

Lookout Mountain seems to be intended for the purpose of attracting Kentuckians. It was the first battle fought between Confederates and Hessians. Also, Lookout Mountain Hotel was the scene of the famous memorials, paralleling the Declaration of Independence, by Hall-Mills infidel, which goes around the base of the mountain. Rates are reasonable, the hotels long and will cost $1,000,000.

Tutt's Pills.

The royal purple hasn't had on you? Does a little in patronizing its manufacturers? Then get busy and show the editor, but stop and take a long breath. Tutt's Pills are the royal purple, and you don't remember some of the favors and kindnesses he has done you. Don't you reflect that it may not be long before you will need his paper?

Accordance to the Macedonian Dem.

Mr. George Banks, a prominent farmer of that country, says a sure way to prevent malaria, chills and fever, and avoid trouble and doctor's bills, is to keep the liver active from using Simmons Liver Regulator. He has used it for years and knows what he says. Take no substitute. The genuine has Z. Red Stamp on wrapper.

A Minnesota man captured a kingfisher recently, fed it on minnows and made a pet of him, training the bird to come and feed by them at his master's feet. In summer the bird is taken to the country, where it feeds on insects, and at Shanty. The bird is a great help to the farmer, and Mr. Shanty delivers the fish to the master.

Wayne's Cream Vermifuge not only expels worms, but gives tone to the stomach and bowels. Try it. Price 25c.

The Holy Synod of Russia has decided to prohibit the sale of intoxicating liquors in the churches. Observed that the Holy Synod of Russia has decided to prohibit the sale of intoxicating liquors in the churches. It is well known that in those countries the sale of liquor is not allowed in churches, and by this measure Jews sinners are affected.

An expert has been to explain that the reason why Dr. Miles' Nervine Cures so many cases of nervousness is because it contains no opium, chloral or other nerve deadening drug. It restores at once the nerve and the disease immediately disappears. Sold by Tureman & Son, druggist.

Blackberry Crop.

To most people the blackberry is the finest of the wild small fruits. All who know that they are, or can be, cultivated, have only to plant a few in their home or volunteer crop is occasionally a welcome one. Of late years there has become interested in the cultivation of the blackberry, and the Rev. J. J. Lane, of Florence Station. He has already a considerable area in blackberries and an average of 87 per cents, and as a result of his success in the culture of the fruit he has written a book on the subject, as it is said, is now in the press. This is the second essay of interesting little 100-page publication.—Pulaski News.

ENGINEER'S LITTLE DAUGHTER.

Where the cause has long been operating, the effect will be slow in yielding to treatment. Nature cannot be hurried. She must have time to work. Many people, however, are not willing to wait. They want to be cured at once. They are the ones who are always trying some new remedy. They are the ones who are always trying some new remedy. They are the ones who are always trying some new remedy.

Is Baby Thin this summer? Then add a little SCOTT'S EMULSION to his milk three times a day. It is astonishing how fast he will improve. If he nurses, let the mother take the Emulsion. 50c. and $1.00, all druggists.

The Doctor's First Case

By Trot F. Pinch

That fall is prophet is not without honor save in his own country and among his own people is a truth that is applied to many professions, having conspicuous illustrations in the history of the world. Even the Saviour of mankind was not without honor except in his own country and among his own people. Statesmen, warriors, poets, painters, musicians, orators, authors, actors, inventors, financiers, lawyers, doctors, preachers, editors, and representatives of all the learned professions, have had to submit to the same humiliating fact. Even the humble tiller of the soil, the mechanic, the laborer, the merchant, the banker, the broker, the manufacturer, the miner, the sailor, the soldier, the policeman, the fireman, the engineer, the conductor, the brakeman, the porter, the waiter, the cook, the barber, the tailor, the shoemaker, the blacksmith, the carpenter, the mason, the painter, the plumber, the electrician, the photographer, the artist, the musician, the actor, the author, the editor, the reporter, the printer, the publisher, the bookseller, the librarian, the teacher, the professor, the student, the clergyman, the lawyer, the doctor, the dentist, the veterinary surgeon, the undertaker, the embalmer, the gravedigger, the sexton, the janitor, the watchman
