COMMUNICATED.

Notice address, Ky., June 7, 1899.
Editor MERCURY:

I noticed in the last issue of the News Letter an announcement concerning Mr. J. Kellar's race for the Democratic nomination for Secretary of State.

We are of the same opinion as the Georgetown paper that while it is early there is already, by all means, here a strong sentiment in favor of his nomination and will endeavor to secure him the same.

City Council.

All the members present except Mossler meeting with Mayor Kennedy presiding. C. F. Mish was allowed three weeks' pull for an itemized, not having before him data for credit.

The resignation of J. A. Krenick as Fire Marshal was filed and accepted and W. J. Dorsey elected to fill the vacancy. Committee to consider resignation of Chief Engineer.

Communication from Chief of Police Lutz was read and accepted and he was authorized to purchase a new lock, but said lock not to exceed $2.50.

Do not write Communications.

The communication of Nicholas Biddle, Jr., to the Democratic Committee of Philadelphia was read and accepted and he was authorized to publish the same in pamphlet form.

Communication from Chief of Police Lutz was read and accepted and he was authorized to purchase a new lock, but said lock not to exceed $2.50.

How the mighty have fallen! Ex-President Harrison is now a candidate for all of the prizes of a lecture bureau. Windfall, Ind., for $100 a night. Who pulled it down last night?

Mr. Kearle's speech was a strong one, and was heartily applauded by the delegates present. Mr. McCartney is a resident of Cumberland county, and has been a prominent factor in the Democratic party of that county for many years. He is a gentleman of high character, and is well known throughout the district. He is a lawyer by profession, and has been a member of the Legislature from Cumberland county
