THE MERCURY.

PUBLISHED EVERY THURSDAY.

G. B. Keller, E. W. Keller
KELLER & SON, Publishers

G. B. KELLER ..... Editor
J. W. POWLING ..... Foreman

SUBSCRIPTION RATES:

ENTERED AT THE CARLISLE POSTOFFICE AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER.

THURSDAY, MAR. 8, ... 1900

PAY UP AND GET A PRIZE.

Farm Journal Five Years.

By special arrangement made with the publishers of the FARM JOURNAL we are enabled to offer a five-years subscription to that paper to every new subscriber who pays for the MERCURY one year in advance, and the same offer is made to every old subscriber who will pay up all back dues and one year in advance—the papers for both at the price of one only.

In order to get the Farm Journal as a premium for advance payments it will be necessary to walk right up to the office and settle. We have only a limited number of these premiums to dispose of.

Farm Journal is a model of freshness and perfectly reliable.

The President has appointed Mr. Dicker Commerce at Gothenburg. He will take office some time in April.

At Washington Pugh is generally considered one of the Hanna-Quay candidates for Governor.

Mr. Bryan says the sad thing about the Philippine question is that the people are not familiar with what has been done.

Winston Churchill, the author, and President of the Penn Commandery of the Loyal Legion of the United States, is a descendant of Winston Churchill, the famous English statesman.

Governor Pingree, of Michigan, has appointed Fred M. Warner, Secretary of State, to succeed Hazen S. Pingree, who resigned to become a candidate for Governor. Warner was elected Secretary of State last fall.

Two spring bonnet is reported to be in existence in Carlisle. It is a very fine article in front, a little finer in the back and finest of all in the middle. It is trimmed with a few flowers and a bird of paradise. It is headed together and is worn by Miss Fannie Twag.

Miss Fannie Twag's wedding bonnet is reported to be in existence in Carlisle. It is a very fine article in front, a little finer in the back and finest of all in the middle. It is trimmed with a few flowers and a bird of paradise. It is headed together and is worn by Miss Fannie Twag.

Dr. Keller's Mistake.

One Hundred Dollars for a Dollar.

The Southern Passenger Association has decided to issue a hundred dollar ticket between Washington and Atlanta, Ga., good for one year. The price of the ticket is $100. The ticket is good for one year. The price of the ticket is $100. The ticket is good for one year. The price of the ticket is $100. The ticket is good for one year. The price of the ticket is $100. The ticket is good for one year. The price of the ticket is $100.

Good In Everything.

HALTWELL.

ISAAC HAG

MILNAD

The Way It Works.

Railroad Meeting.

Every citizen of Carlisle is urgently requested to be at the Court-house in Carlisle, Ky., on Thursday Evening, Mar. 2nd, At 6 o'clock. We trust every citizen, and the ladies as well, will be present, as this the final meeting.

If you are interested in the building up of your town you should not fail to come to the Court-house March 2nd.

By order of

The Committee.

Nicholas County Girls.

The Richwood Climes of Feb. 19th contains a report of the people at Richwood, shows that three of Nicholas county girls are doing well, viz:

Georgia Lafon—Higher Arithmetic, Chemistry 90, Special History 91, Political Economy 87, Department 96, Composition 100, Attendance 100.

Jessie Burroughs—Higher Arithmetic, Chemistry 90, Special History 91, Political Economy 87, Department 96, Composition 100, Attendance 100.

Jessie Burroughs—Grammar 90, Reading 90, Geometry 78, History of Ohio—90, Class Elocution 90, Drawing 100, Housekeeping 100, Department 94.

Two farmers and John Hiles, two miles from Kentontown, are making free trips to Hopkinsville every week. The farmers were unsure about one thing, and that was whether they would be allowed to ride on the train without removing all doubt about the matter Mr. Reynolds Don't forget Hiles and Settle.

Two fine scenes of the new Prince Edward Island Railway are given on the front page of this week's issue. The first shows both primate to be in the good old summer time, and the second shows the road in winter, illustrating while it is hoped to reduce the time between Charlottetown and Pictou to four hours, it is not expected that it will be reduced to less than five hours during the winter months.

Earl Current ran third in the 50 yard dash in the Mid Winter Carnival at Frankfort and came in for a share of the prizes.

At Washington Pugh is generally considered one of the Hanna-Quay candidates for Governor. He will take office some time in April.

Mr. Bryan says the sad thing about the Philippine question is that the people are not familiar with what has been done.

Winston Churchill, the author, and President of the Penn Commandery of the Loyal Legion of the United States, is a descendant of Winston Churchill, the famous English statesman.

Governor Pingree, of Michigan, has appointed Fred M. Warner, Secretary of State, to succeed Hazen S. Pingree, who resigned to become a candidate for Governor. Warner was elected Secretary of State last fall.

Two spring bonnet is reported to be in existence in Carlisle. It is a very fine article in front, a little finer in the back and finest of all in the middle. It is trimmed with a few flowers and a bird of paradise. It is headed together and is worn by Miss Fannie Twag.

Miss Fannie Twag's wedding bonnet is reported to be in existence in Carlisle. It is a very fine article in front, a little finer in the back and finest of all in the middle. It is trimmed with a few flowers and a bird of paradise. It is headed together and is worn by Miss Fannie Twag.

Dr. Keller's Mistake.

One Hundred Dollars for a Dollar.

The Southern Passenger Association has decided to issue a hundred dollar ticket between Washington and Atlanta, Ga., good for one year. The price of the ticket is $100. The ticket is good for one year. The price of the ticket is $100. The ticket is good for one year. The price of the ticket is $100. The ticket is good for one year. The price of the ticket is $100.

Good In Everything.

HALTWELL.

ISAAC HAG

MILNAD

The Way It Works.

MILLERSBURG.

Norton Item, Paper, Pen, etc.:

Mrs. Martin O'Neal is visiting her parents in Carlisle.

Mrs. Robt. McClelland returned to her home in Carlisle, Ky., on Monday.

John W. Shellenberger, who has been quite ill is some better.

Mr. Homer Taylor, of Carlisle, was here Tuesday on business.

Mrs. Wm. Ward went to the succession of Mrs. Mary Ann Ward, Monday.

Mrs. Mollie Shaw, of Maysville, is the guest of John Ford and family.

Hugh Thompson shipped a car of hogs and a load of horses Monday.

Miss Mary Champ left this morning for Carlisle, where she will visit Mrs. Wm. McIntyre and to Jas. Gillespie an extra pair of broke mules, this week.

Mrs. T. B. Lancaster and Mrs. Wm. Bohrer, of Carlisle, visited friends here Tuesday.

Mrs. Homer Taylor, of Carlisle, was here Tuesday on business.

Mrs. Wm. Ward went to the succession of Mrs. Mary Ann Ward, Monday.

Mrs. Mollie Shaw, of Maysville, is the guest of John Ford and family.

Hugh Thompson shipped a car of hogs and a load of horses Monday.

Miss Mary Champ left this morning for Carlisle, where she will visit Mrs. Wm. McIntyre and to Jas. Gillespie an extra pair of broke mules, this week.

Mrs. T. B. Lancaster and Mrs. Wm. Bohrer, of Carlisle, visited friends here Tuesday.

Mrs. Ed Ingles is in Carlisle visiting her father, John Ross, who has been very ill several weeks.

J. F. Miller has returned from an extended visit to Carlisle, where he has been with his son.

Elijah Neal received two handsome pictures from his son, Lieut. Neal, of the 10th Cavalry, now of Washington, Carlisle county.

Mrs. Orville Talbott and Miss Lillie Goodrich, both of Reddick's Mills, were the guests of Mrs. Talbott's sister, Mrs. Wm. Ward, last week.

Mrs. Mitchell Russell came Saturday from Carlisle to visit her parents.

Capt. Wm. T. Ingles, of Carlisle, was here Monday and became a father, a fine, healthy boy. Capt. Ingles is a veteran soldier, and he has the congratulations of his many friends. He is married to his wife, who was Miss Catherine Hopkins. Miller Hopkins is the father-in-law. Mrs. J. A. Kennedy has been quite ill for several days, but is improving. The Wooster Herald pays a nice compliment to Mrs. Kennedy's father, Capt. Van Dorn.

Jas. Collier has returned from Kentucky.

Jas. Collier has returned from Kentucky.

Eggs are selling here at 20 cents per dozen, and scarce at that.

Miss Katie Lowe, of Paris, is the guest of Miss Nell Ward, of this place.

Earl Current ran third in the 50 yard dash in the Mid Winter Carnival at Frankfort and came in for a share of the prizes.

Mrs. F. F. Hurst, of Tilton, Fleming county, is the guest of her son, Dr. Hurst, and family, on the Maysville turnpike.

Mrs. Judy Lee, of Maysville, is the guest of Mrs. Lee, of the Lexington hotel.

Mrs. Addie Dehaven, of Paris, is with her daughter, Mrs. Jas. Gillespie, who is very ill. Mrs. Dehaven is a member of the Methodist church.

Mrs. Addie Dehaven, of Paris, is with her daughter, Mrs. Jas. Gillespie, who is very ill. Mrs. Dehaven is a member of the Methodist church.

MOORFIELD

Lucky Jumpkins about the village is the possessor of a new suit of clothes. He received a letter from Mr. John Cox, of Cincinnati, a few days ago, stating that he had left him a legacy of $1,000. Lucky is a son of Mrs. Lucinda Moran and was, before the death of Mr. Cox, a boarder at the home of Mrs. Cox, at the home of Judge Cox, of Upper Fork Licks ought.

Walter and Harry Hoke entertained a number of their friends at their home on Main street last Friday evening.

Mr. Jones, while moving in Mr. Mitchell's house, fell and broke his leg. He is getting along nicely. Dr. Hall is attending him.

Mrs. Lucinda Moran is quite ill. Dr. Hall is attending her.

Mrs. Lucinda Moran is quite ill. Dr. Hall is attending her.

The Friday afternoon, Feb. 16th, the Moorfield Literary Society met at the home of Miss Nannie Hoke. The meeting was opened by the beautiful recital of Mrs. J. W. Barry's poem, "Lincoln," by Miss Nannie Hoke. Promptly at 2 o'clock the meeting was opened by a short prayer by Rev. Mr. Hoke. The meeting was opened by a short prayer by Rev. Mr. Hoke. The meeting was opened by a short prayer by Rev. Mr. Hoke. The meeting was opened by a short prayer by Rev. Mr. Hoke.

Mrs. Lucinda Moran is quite ill. Dr. Hall is attending her