ASSIGNMENTS

FOR CONGRESS.
We are authorized to announce
Hon. Thomas H. Paynter, Democrat, as a candidate for Congress from the Tenth Congressional District, subject to the action of the Democratic voters of the district at the primary election to be held next August.

The United States Senate voted Tuesday that M. S. Quay, of Penn., was not entitled to a seat in that body.

Wants of Franklin Monday are now held in confidence that Judge Cantrill was carrying the undivided support of Governor Taylor around in his pocket.

Governor Taylor has appointed Hon. Garrett Zedeker five more State Bridge. How days we are not prepared to say. He stationed in and him.

Hon. Thomas E. Bramlette, Representative from the County of Woodford, died Monday of apoplexy. He was one of the leading lay several years, and was one year older than his father, who died in 1899. Hon. Thomas Jackson, of Lancaster, was the father of Mr. Bramlette, who is the only

It is believed at Frankfort that the trial of the men charged with murdering Governor Goebel will not be held in Hardin County at all. The Court of Appeals of State Police would have to be called in to hold it in order to have a fair trial. He prefers the hitch of Judge Cantrill to the jail at Frankfort.

In eighteen months after the case was submitted to the jury in the Franklin Circuit Court Israel Pendleton, charged with complicity in the shooting of Edward Scott. There was an exciting scene in the court when the verdict was returned. Pendleton was found guilty of manslaughter and sent to prison for four years.

A message from Frankfort Ky., says: The engagement of Miss Winifred Fauntleroy, daughter of Judge John Fauntleroy, of Franklin, to Hon. Morton K. Tomlin, State Librarian, has been announced. The wedding will be an event of fashionable interest. It is said that Democratic State leaders are of the opinion that Mr. Bryan could not be beaten if he consented to run, and that he was likely to do so before the time arrived for him.

Col. D. G. Colson, who while working on third and Allen Frankfort, was run down and killed Saturday morning by the 8:30 train, and succeeded one of the officers on the force at Frankfort, was declared "not guilty" by the jury last Saturday. The evidence showed that he acted in self defense, and was justified in shooting. We write in Frankfort the day of the funeral of Colonel Colson, and the whole town is in mourning. Everybody knows how the populace demanded Colson's life, and we are glad to know that he and now the more people expressing confidence in Colson than ever before. Only one day what to will do. Thank heaven for that.

JAMES P. KELLER.

James P. Keller, formerly of this county, and known all over Texas, after an illness of five months, died at his home in Austin, Texas, on the afternoon of April 16th, at the age of 45 years. Mr. Keller was a native of Carlisle county. He lived in Bardwell for many years, and was elected Sheriff twice. He moved to Austin about 15 years ago, and was elected Sheriff of that county. He leaves a wife and three children, Mrs. Ben Hall and John Keller, all of Austin. John Keller, who is a brother of Mrs. Ben Hall, of Bardwell, left Bardwell Saturday to be with his brother-in-law. The funeral was to be held on Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The remains were brought from Austin to Bardwell for interment. The funeral was to be held from the residence of Mrs. Ben Hall, on Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The services were to be conducted by Rev. Mr. Hall, pastor of the Methodist church, assisted by Rev. Mr. Hall, pastor of the Methodist church, assisted by Rev. Mr. Hall, pastor of the Methodist church, assis
