Democratic county will vote on the first Saturday succeeding in November if the people of Kentucky are up to date the roads will soon be free from toll gates.

Hon J. N. Kehoe, Democratic candidate for Congress, was here Saturday assembling friends in regard to the coming campaign. Mr. Kehoe is making a most thorough preliminary canvass of the district, looking particularly toward a thorough organization of the party.

As we go to press on Wednesday afternoon, it is not possible to say definitely how the vote will go in this county in the election of President. It is safe to say that there will be a vote or more between Bryan and McKinley, and we predict that the ordeal in the two parties will divide the vote about as it was three years since upon each other. We have not the time to go into the matter, but will assume a fair election and an honest count, and will be satisfied with the result whether Democratic or National Democratic wins.

Dr. S. H. Nox has returned to the practice of medicine in this city. He has fitted up a neat office in the room formerly occupied by Dr. C. B. Wilson, of Bracken county. Mr. Wilson is a thoroughly good physician and there is no reason why he should not make his patrons and friends a good paper. His acquaintance with politics is not extensive but from what we can see, in leaving for Four Years he will fill the office of Auditor with credit to himself and to the whole people of the State. Mr. Wilson is a Democrat and a good one at that.

THE LEGISLATURE.

The Legislature met a week ago today in Frankfort and soon Tuesday. The first week was taken up in getting the general Assembly over hold in the Senate Chamber under an agreement.

The following members from the county are in the Legislature:

SENATE.
S. W. KELLER.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.
JOHN W. BARNES, Democrat.
JOHN W. FOWLING, Republican.

LONDON AGAIN IN LONDON.

London, Aug. 15, 1900.

Dear Mercury:

I have written you on all sides before, but must not be able to get them all published, but thought to all right and I will venture off here, anyway from this city.

I pen our return to London we found a letter from Mr. Collyer, accompanying the invitation to the marriage of one of the daughters of our dear friends, Mrs. Laura Wood. We were unable to attend, but sent her the day. It takes over a week to find and fulfilled orders, it was "Miss Ella" as a friend she was loved and admired, and was Christian and tough for she was loved and mourned by all her true sympathy goes out to that dear old lady in her sorrow and may God help them to bear their burden.

We come down the entire length of the Rhine, stopping at Cologne and Rotterdam, of which latter place we traveled a steamer for London. We were on the sea about dark. A storm awaited us and quickly wrapping our ship in its arms, it turned us up, down and around, first on one and then the other, for 36 hrs. We shall never forget it. Many of the passengers were ill, on board were those absolutely heedless except Holland and one other of the party. It was a fine storm, however
