Will Not Contest

A meeting of the Republican leaders of this Congressional District, was held at Williamson, Virginia, Wednesday, when Rev. N. F. Hoskins the Republican candidate for Congress, who was defeated by Hon. Jno. W. Gaines, was determined that the seat of Hon. J. B. White at the next Congress should not be contested. If the Republicans of Kentucky into two judicial districts, should become a fact, Mr. Hoskins will be an applicant for the Huntington and will receive the full Republican vote of the district, and stands an excellent chance of being appointed. Another aspirant for the Judgeship, and for the Ninth District can be found in Ashland. The Eleventh wants his old seat and will probably get it. Ashland will get nothing but the Marshalship and with it has favors enough to keep the whole town in hand for three years. Wednesday Journal.
