Moody and the Babies.

Chicago Journal:

Dwight L. Moody was a man of original methods. His heart was big enough to take in the whole world and his sympathy with mankind was genuine and in contrast of this comment in New York on the evangelist's methods is not to be misconstrued as a reflection upon the acceptance of some of the audience, who darted cruel looks at the innocent child and the embarrassed mother. The mother waited for a favorable opportunity to go out, but Mr. Moody told her to remain where she was, he guessed his lungs were stronger than the baby's and didn't fail. And the child did go out!

At the close of the service he made the simple announcement that the week afternoon he would preach to mothers with babies in their arms, and no sooner was the announcement by a baby would be silenced. Some was there such a gathering. The scene touched the hearts of many. Mr. Moody's idea was evidently that a good many of the women present had owned babies for the occasion.

For Over Fifty Years.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used by millions for children, for over fifty years, with never failing success. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain; cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup," and take no other kind.

Paper Mill.

The Winchester Sun in its contract of new line title to any of the upper trust. The establishment of a co-operative paper mill would be a good subject for the Kentucky Press Association, when it meets next year. It has met year after year and accomplish but nothing but the having of a good time. It should reconsider taking definite steps toward establishing a co-operative mill. Let each shareholder pay in $100 or more and each shareholder cast. The paper from such a co-operative concern could be made cheaper than the prices of which have recently been advanced from 25 to 50 per cent. Every newspaper opposed to trusts would and should take some stock in such an enterprise and it would insure plenty of outside capital to stand a town behind the scheme that would be irresistible and sound the country.

I am indebted to Our Mamie Gough Cure for my health and life. It cured me of lung trouble following grippe. I had been given up by the doctors and friends of this never failing remedy. Thomas Jones, Hartford, Ky. Sold by Evans & Son, Druggists.

Thirty two ladies of mine shoes, costing $16 a foot, or a total of $16.00, represents the price one transcontinental railway had to pay before it could run its trains over the Rocky Mountain division of its road. That was merely the first cost, since that dollar fully $1,000,000 have been spent annually in keeping the roads in repair and the expensed tracks free from snow.

English Spavin Liniment removes all Hard or Calloused Lumps and Blemishes from horses, Blood Spavin, Curbs, Splints, Sweeny, Ringbone, Stifles, Sprains, all Swollen Throats, Coughs, etc. Save $50 by use of one bottle. At Lexington, last week Little pauper listened to Elder Stark Collis speak against Mormonism at the Broadway Christian Church. He said Mormon elders should be driven from Kentucky, and not allowed to pollute our people. He showed Mormonism to all be hidebound and damnable, and that the people were unwise in their power to prevent Mormon elders from carrying on proselyting in Kentucky. Elder Frank Clay, pastor of the Christian Church at Salt Lake City, spoke for half an hour describing the inner life of Mormons and showing how Brigham Roberts came to be elected to Congress. He declared the seating of Roberts would be a disgrace to the country.

R. R. Range Druggist guarantees every bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and will refund the money to any person who is not satisfied after using two thirds contents of the bottle according to directions.
