THE CELEBRATED BLUE LICK SPRINGS.

Famous Resort for Southerners Before the War

On the banks of the beautiful Lee-town fork, ten miles from Carlisle on the road of Maysville and Lexington, there is in the face to Blue Lick Springs, which is the world over for its curative properties of all kinds of kidney, liver and stomach troubles.

It is only a matter of a few years or how long these springs have been known to the white man, but the Indians for generations ponds to their possession for ages. Tradition has it that the Indians, the second leading to the springs, made by the Indians, that the medicinal properties of the water were discovered by the Indians. Lower Springs is the greatest for a number of years, but the Upper Springs is the favorite. Many of either to the county seat, the Upper Springs is the favorite. The Lower Springs is the favorite. The Upper Springs is the favorite. The Lower Springs is the favorite. The Upper Springs is the favorite.
