The Louisville Dispatch

Worth Pondering.

Tearless men have dry souls.
Scandal is the poison of society.
Where there is trust there is hope.
Distrust breeds hopelessness.
The man who begs is, in almost every instance, the man who, one day, squandered.
Enthusiasm is to a man what steam is to an engine.
Mankind realizes that it is imperfect, but few men realize their imperfections.
Never denounce a man whom you do not esteem because he has told some one that he thinks very little of you.
It was necessary for a divine spirit to bring the golden rule into the world; human nature, of itself never could have conceived it.
There is an undercurrent of goodness in the world which will prevent mankind from going downward. Individuals may err, but mankind can never degenerate.—[Chicago Post.

W. M. Orr, Newark, O., says, "We never feel safe without One Minute Cough Cure in the house. It saved my little boy's life when he had the pneumonia. We think it is the best medicine made." It cures coughs and all lung diseases. Pleasant to take, harmless and gives immediate results. People's Drug Co.

The Homesick Tramp.

A tramp went along a dusty road and sat down on the steps of a house in a quiet village street. Through the windows the voice of a man and a woman in violent altercation were heard and the tramp listened intently.

Angry words, and occasionally the sound of something thrown reached his ears, and he hardly sat still.

At last, evidently the wife had taken a broom, and the blows fell fast and furious.

The tramp could stand it no longer, but, rushing to the side door, he darted in, stepping between the pair, he cried, with a husky voice:

"Give us a chip or two with the broom, old woman; it seems just like old times."—Collier's Weekly.

The Club Woman's Error.

Seeking preferment in the club will stultify a woman's heart and brain surely, but not more surely than the pathetic scramble for social position outside the clubs we so constantly see. The matter is apparent to every onlooker in either case. The woman who spends her thoughts and aspirations in effort to pull herself into the "upper set" may gain her world, but she has lost her soul in doing it, and the woman who wastes her club privileges in effort for office will have lost the good her club might have given her and gained little else than criticism and contempt.—[The Club Woman.

When you want something to heal a burn, or a sore, or a cut, why not try Banner Salve, which is guaranteed the most healing ointment in the world. S. P. Baird Druggist.

We acknowledge the receipt of a most unique catchy musical composition entitled "A Southern Jamboree," by J. W. Lerman. It is now making a great hit as played by the 23rd Regiment Band, Sousa's Band and other leading musical organizations. For piano, the regular price is 50c per copy, but if our readers will be sure to mention The Mercury they can secure a copy by sending 20c to the Union Mutual Music Co., 20 E. 14th Street, New York.

Ex-Governor James B. McCreary, of Richmond, Chairman of the Goebel Monument Fund, reports that a Columbia, (Mo.) man sent the first dollar he ever made in business and which he had been keeping as a souvenir for years. A five-year-old girl of Lincoln county, Ky., contributed a dollar in dimes from her savings bank, while from Fayette, Harvard county, Mo., came a contribution of $114 from 114 Democrats who held a public meeting and donated this sum.

He Fooled the Surgeons.

ASK YOUR DOCTOR!

Ask your physician this question, "What is the one great remedy for consumption?" He will answer, "Cod-liver oil." Nine out of ten will answer the same way.

Yet when persons have consumption they loathe all fatty foods, yet fat is necessary for their recovery and they cannot take plain cod-liver oil. The plain oil disturbs the stomach and takes away the appetite. The disagreeable fishy odor and taste make it almost unendurable. What is to be done?

This question was answered when we first made of Cod-Liver Oil with Hypophosphites. Although that was nearly twenty-five years ago, yet it stands alone today the one great remedy for all affections of the throat and lungs.

The bad taste and odor have been taken away, the oil itself has been partly digested, and the most sensitive stomach objects to it rarely. Not one in ten can take and digest the plain oil. Nine out of ten can take SCOTT'S EMULSION and digest it. That's why it cures so many cases of early consumption. Even in advanced cases it brings comfort and greatly prolongs life.
