Next Tuesday will be election day. Come out and vote.

Some readers do not like the Democratic ticket. Well, they will not have to look at it but once more.

Hon. W. J. Bryan addressed the people in our Court house Tuesday. He had a good audience.

Hon. Jno. W. Yerkes has resigned as Police Judge of Louisville, and Hon. Jno. Barbour has been appointed to fill the vacancy.

The friends of T. M. Stanley ought to help him out by voting for him. He is a good officer and deserves your support.

Texas will be a Democratic State by 100,000 majority. Democrats, you have been left at the polls, why not vote and help to elect the ticket?

Mr. C. S. Tompkins and J. J. Mitchell addressed a good crowd at the Court house last night. Mr. Tompkins defended some of the Democratic failures.

Gentlemen, Democrats, you have a good deal to do and but little time to do it in. Let us hear from you. Democrats, you have no excuse for not voting. Every man can vote. Mr. Keller has given you the opportunity.

Hon. Jno. Barbour was endorsed at Maysville by men of both Democratic factions. Judge Barbour is a good man and will make a good Police Judge.

Judge Hendrick, Democratic candidate for Lieutenant Governor, has been stumping Kentucky for the past month. He has addressed more than 100 meetings and has been received with great enthusiasm. He has made a splendid canvass.

Ex. W. W. Mason of Bethel spoke here Monday afternoon, and Mr. Mason of Mayslick spoke here Monday night. Both of these gentlemen are Democrats and are doing good work for the party.

Hon. Jno. G. Carlisle, Democratic candidate for Governor in 1896, will speak in Louisville on the night of the 5th. Mr. Carlisle is a great orator, and all should hear him.

Hon. Jno. G. Carlisle
