Painted Paragraphs.

Rose bushes are domestic and none are imported.

Any man who never lies never lies except for anything but love.

It is cruel to grow an honest head consisting of four acres.

Many a man who refuses to be well used to be set much power is.

Sometimes a fat heiress of sweet and pudgery is the mother in law.

Many a man who refuses to be well used to be set much power is.

There are a good many men who boast of their ancestors who have to have a special grudge against their descendants.

Don't marry a girl who laughs at everything you say. She may be a good girl but you have got your hands full.

High living, intemperance, exposure and many other things bring on nervous prostration, but Electric Bitters will prevent Bright's disease and all kidney troubles if only a few bottles are taken in time. Price 50 cents and $1 per bottle. For sale by S. P. Baird, Druggist.

Dickinson, Tenn., has a peculiar citizen. The attorney here has been called before the grand jury to testify in a case. He refused to answer the questions on the grounds that the information he possessed was given him by his client. Most town would take the matter to court, but Dickinson takes no such chances. It has a forty-foot hempen rope and jail for other troublesome people.

Diarrhœa and sorrowness, which are not easy to throw off, are speedily relieved by Mexican Mustang Liniment. Use it internally and externally. Keep it in the house. Prevents pneumonia, and other dangerous consequences, on the grounds that the best is the cheapest. Sold by druggists. Size 50 cents and $1.00. Wm. Fish, of Linn, O., obtained relief results from the use of Piso's Cure for Consumption. "It relieved my husband's cough at once and gave me rest after suffering for weeks." Thus writes Mrs. Lucy Fish, of Linn, O. It is an honest and reliable medicine. Sold by S. P. Baird, Druggist.

Jones & Van Dean—Uncle John A. Jones died at his home between Bethel and Hawthorne Friday and was buried Saturday at the latter place. He was a native of this county and had been in feeble health for some time. He was about 70 years old and was a sister of Jeff and Allen Jones, who survive him. He was a member of the Christian church. He was a gentleman of the old school, reserved and dignified in his manner, but a man of kind heart and generous impulses. Chas reports are not quite so bad as they were a week or two ago. There will be a falling off of several hundreds of millions of bushels from the crop of 1900, yet the shrinkage promises to be much less than was feared last week. Favorable weather, indeed from this time forward, will result in a yield of 2,500,000,000 bushels, or 1,700,000,000 bushels less than was secured with a crop of 4,200,000,000 bushels harvested at the beginning of July.

State Finance.

For the first time in perhaps twenty years or longer there is not an unpaid individual claim on file in the office of the auditor of the State. Auditor's office, however, was all busied in the auditor's office yesterday afternoon at the close of business, preparatory to the auditing of the last claim. The sum of $197,884.27. Out of this there is due the Central and Western Kansas Asylum their quarterly allowance amounting to about $50,000. This will be paid early next month. There will then be no further log draw on the Treasury until the first quarter of the school money is due in October. The receipts for the months of August, September, there will, it is estimated, be collected and paid into the treasury from delinquent sources about $100,000.

Upon this statement of facts, as shown by the official record, it will be seen that the State finances are in a good condition and that a surge of confidence and prosperity is sweeping over the land as no other thirteen to of the people.

Auditor Coulter returned to-day from a vacation trip west in the East, and was well pleased to know that the affairs of the State are working so smoothly in his absence. From now until the legislature assembles the duties of the auditor will have no trouble keeping the individual books and will be in the close of each day's business.

A certain party used to be the love in the neighborhood where he lived. He was a handsome fellow, a dancer of the first order, a splendid singer, and boasted a fine voice. He was a good fellow, and was liked by everybody. His only effective is moderation—with everybody here and a touch of flesh colors. In broad twill serges, it has been made up in a pretty green striped cloth, and in all white taffeta and trimmed with heavy white silk of black taffeta silk. It is also shown in the girdle or shadow effect, in which the material is arranged in folds and the effect is much more graceful. Edged Duchess laces are favored in gimalt for the long princess robe for evening wear, and is also used in accordeon plaitings for the skirt of the same material.

Where the direction is good, and a little more than ordinary skill is required, the Duchess laces are to be had in the bottom lining. White crepe de chine is the favorite material for the more dressy waists, but cotton and all the mercerized fabrics are also much in favor. Some of the most effective waists are of white lawn, with a touch of black velvet ribbon and a few bands of Duchess lace.
