Pithy Political Points.

By Robert Ingersoll.

The Democratic party had no will to Resist himself as to be defeated.

Mr. Cleveland waits the Democratic party to come back—promises it.

The Democratic party will handle its friend obeying the back as tenderly as Grover Cleveland.

Cleveland says he is pretty much used at catching ducks, but he hasn't yet had that will—not a duck.

When the Democratic party is defeated it might as well—not a duck.

A Vain Industry.

Farmer who looked a little out of season, and who had a little more than a week's growth of beard on his face, called at this office yesterday and subscribed for the CARLISLE MERCURY. He said he had been reading it for a long time, and could not do without it any longer. He is a man who is not afraid to spend a dollar for what he gets, and he is one of the best farmers in the county. To Carve a Cough.

Take a large dose of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It will never be found on a sick man's table. It will never be found on a sick man's table with Ground Ivy Root.

A proposition to the Democrats: Let us be the Democrats and you be the Republicans. Then we would come out even—at least we would have a chance to do so.—Cleveland.
