Fancher McKnight is confined to his room with la grippe.

Mr. Jackson Bryan and wife have moved to Florida to use his name. Mr. Jennings inaugurated governor.

Commissioner Proctor has announced that he will not contest the election of Hon. J. N. Kehoe. Mr. Polk will be the good sense in the decision.

T. H. Peyton is now Chief Justice of the Court of Appeals. He fills the distinction of being the first colored citizen of a Republican State to hold the position.

Two Republican papers in Indiana openly denounced Senator Beveridge. The Farmer's Trust, Mr. Watson and other country papers, have been urging the election of Mr. Kehoe. Mr. Polk will be the better line and the Democrats will have from three to four votes. The result will be known in the week.

It is curious to see with what readiness the baleful secret the murdered Goebel was shot from ambush by a Republican has been received by the Republican press. Not a word of condemnation of the crime has been uttered. It is clear that there are over eight hundred votes in the Republican party who, if there are, but dare not to publicly express their indebtedness. We challenge the truth of this statement.

John M Campbell

In the proper notice to the public of the death of Hon. John M. Campbell, for County Court Clerk of Nicholas county, and a leading Democratic party. Mr. Campbell's long connection with the office he held at the time of his death, and his prominence in Democratic affairs, made him well known to the people of the entire State. He was an acceptable citizen of Nicholas county, and the people of the county, and the Democratic party, will feel the loss of the deceased.—Kentucky Democrat.

Kind Words.

The Carlisle Mercury, one of the best Democratic papers in the State, which lashed itself into a frenzy of fury last week, in its efforts to keep silent on the Democratic defeat in Nicholas, and to keep silent on the fraud which was perpetrated in that county, and which caused the defeat of Democratic candidates, and caused it to suppress the Democratic majority in the county, and to suppress the Democratic majority in the county, and to suppress the Democratic majority in the county, and
