Party Disruption.

News comes from the Democratic District composed of the counties of Mayville, Braddock, Morgan, Wells and Owsley, of a split in the Democratic Convention, and the nomination of two candidates claiming to be Democrats. The quarrel is growing out of the action of the State Senate, of Kentucky in the Democratic row in parcels. This result is just as we predicted would be the result of the disgraceful ruling of Reform of Louisville. For months we have contended that the Democratic party would reap sorrow and tears from the unfairness, but we were silenced and denounced as a heller. We declared it a shame that Democrats should cheat and swindle one another. We have insisted that clearness of conscience should rule honesty in the interest of the party and not in the interest of the few. We have contended that treatment by contests in order to control the lawful delegates from organizing a convention and nominating the choice of the people, should not be countenanced. In this we have been abused and berated, ruled out of the party councils, and proscribed. We now assure Israel we have said nothing that we will take back. The Democratic party of Kentucky and Legislature is lost to the Democratic party for years to come.

Ed Rehman is responsible for it all. And he is the first to bolt when he cannot have everything his own way.

T. C. B. Lane, formerly of the Democratic organization, and one of the men of the Louisville faction.

We call attention to a short article in our first page which we have clipped and suggestive.

Mr. Markwell, and let us suggest that you read it carefully. Mr. Markwell has put the matter in a nutshell and the Democrat who does not read it will be the loser.

W. F. Watson has purchased the Harrisburg Democrat, and will conduct it after a New Year's.

A Democrat who is not a member of some organization is not going to prove that fact by his vote.

Democrats who do not attend primaries are not going to have much to say about the nominations.
