Over the State.

The Legislature will stand Democratic as by a majority of 40 on joint ballot.

The news over the State this week is that Louisville Democratic by 2,000, Lexington and Fayette county solidly Democratic, Bourbon county Democratic 100, Paducah Democratic, Mt. Sterling Democratic, Owensboro Democratic by 500 in fact every close or doubtful county in the State has gone Democratic.

The returns from the full Monday Journal in many counts show a net gain of 5,000 votes. It is reported however, McLean and Fleming for Wednesday and Thursday between Cogswell and Ashley for Congress, Cogswell receiving.

Kentucky Democratic Congressmen-elect for 1902 are Ollie James, Lexington; Swagar Sherley, Louisville; Evan E. Settle, Shelbyville, which is a good majority to the vote cast. If the new Democratic Governor will only be as honest with the world as they seem to be with themselves.

The landslide in Kentucky Monday was a surprise to the Republicans of the State, as well as to the Democrats. Between Bell Democrat, and Beckham Republican. Bell won by a majority of 40,000 on joint ballot.

Democratic Governors elected in the Southern States for 1901 are: Kentucky, Alabama, Arkansas, Louisiana, Mississippi, Tennessee, Texas, Virginia, which is a good showing for the Democratic party in the South.

The Democratic Governor-elect of Kentucky, J. C. W. Beckham, is the youngest man ever elected Governor of the State. He is 31 years old. He was born in Nelson county, Ky., and is a son of the late Governor Beckham.

The Democratic Governor-elect of Kentucky, J. C. W. Beckham, will be inaugurated on the 10th day of December, 1901, at Frankfort, Ky
