Good Things Cheap.

There is a whole lot of truth in the following from an exchange:

"Remember, the good things in this world are the cheapest. Having water costs less than rum, whiskey, &c. Any of cigars will keep two or three kildare; a gallon of oil heavily costs more than a barrel of flour; a load of anthracite coal in twenty minutes time a church subscription will amount to in three years; a state election costs more than the revival of religion; you can sleep in church every Sunday morning, if you don't go to church you have to pay for your lodging; but a day in a Pullman costs $1 every time. Fifty cents for the minister, a penny for the little ones to put in the missionary box; a dollar for the fixtures, and a pair of trousers frayed at the ends, baggy at the knee and utterly loathed at the dance, for the poor; the dashing lady gets from a week and the city missionary gets a year; the horse race sweeps in $2,000 the first day and the church for both a week, and the twenty-five or thirty of the best women in America simply to dress, and sometimes $10 in debt.

A Million Voices

Could hardly express the thanks of Homer Bell, of West Point, In., for his wife. A severe cold had settled on his lungs, causing a most distressing cough. Several physicians said he had consumption, but could not help him. When all thought he was doomed he began to use Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption and wrote: "It completely cured me and saved my life. I now weigh 227 lbs." It's positively guaranteed for Coughs, Colds and all throat and lung troubles. Free trial at any drug store. Regular size 50 cents and $1.00.

Death of Rev. Milton Mann

Just before going to press last week, too late for insertion in last week's issue, we received a note from Rev. F. W. Hill, of Carlisle, that Rev. Milton Mann had passed to his reward, on the morning of December 7. We look for a fuller notice later from the pen of Rev. Hill, of some other friend who knew him well.

Rev. Mann was well known to the members of the Kentucky Conference, having served in it as a traveling preacher for seven years, though of late years he has been only a local preacher, engaged in farming near Carlisle. He was a man of deep piety, and was highly respected, and though then only near seventy from a serious spell of sickness, was apparently in the work of the church. He talked with us several times when there and referred with feeling to his former work in the ministry and to the brethren who were then engaged in the work.

His body was taken to Lexington and Monday morning, the funeral was conducted by Rev. Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption and writes: "It completely cured me and saved my life. I now weigh 227 lbs." It's positively guaranteed for Coughs, Colds and all throat and lung troubles. Free trial at any drug store. Regular size 50 cents and $1.00. Trial bottles free at Tarrant's Store.

Two Sets of Candidates.

Nearly every precinct in the county has two candidates for the office of the district assessorship of Danville Well Mr. Lusby's friends claim that he has been in the office two terms, and should be allowed to succeed himself, and
