Congress has passed an appropriation to pay for the steamer Maine, and Mr. Roosevelt is busily including $65,000 due her officers.

Dixon Fire-Arrows of the Irving Iron Herald and W. P. Walton of the Lexington Leader had a street fight one day last Saturday but neither was much hurt except in the pocket book.

The Supreme Court of Ohio has decided that the primary election law of all cities null and void. An extra session of the Legislature will be held before October to prevent chaos.

Two Democratic editors at Lexington "got together" on the exact angle of peace pulled them apart before much harm was done. It began to look like the Democrats would elect the next President of the United States but it may be a Republican.

Those who live outside the city limits and envy us on the inside should be reminded when we tell them that our taxes are $2.15 on the $100, and $17.50 on the $800, and $1.75 on the $100 in the State, 50 cents for County, 50 cents for School and 65 cents for City, and then a poll tax of $1.50 for County, $1.00 for City and $1.00 for School.

Representative Griggs, chairman of the Democratic National Executive Committee, says of the Cleveland Fry appointment: "It is the fight of the line haters. Cleveland cannot hope to bring the great body of his party into his position. Bryan cannot expect to lead them with him. What we want to hear from are the haters, not the lovers."

Senator James K. Jones, who retires from Congress on March 3rd next, will be made an Arkansas Court Commissioner.

And Senator Jones, who is chairman of the democratic national committee, and Senator Gorman, chairman of the democratic congressional committee, and U. S. Senator for the Panama gold brick gang, will be on the democratic front as Confederate Democrats.

This is what Tiny Woodson has to say of politics in the "Woodson Wit" for 1902, and next year we shall have a full report of his views on the "Public Speaking" question:

Judge Fryer is a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Judge of the Judicial district, and is subject to the action of the Democratic party. He is a candidate on his own merits, and not as the representative of any faction or clique. He is a candidate because he believes he can fill the office with credit to himself and to the district, and because he has been solicited to become a candidate by many of the best citizens of the district. He is a candidate because he believes he can be elected, and
