A Pennsylvania newspaper is quoted as saying to an Editor:

"Editors date and sell the truth. If you did you would not live. Your newspaper would be a failure."

The Editor replied:

"You are right. And the Minister who tells the truth about the Church members alive or dead will not occupy the pulpit more than one Sunday, and he will be forced to leave the town in a hurry. The preacher, the judge, the lawyer, the merchant, the banker, the mechanic, non-subscribing lazy man, the professional beggar, the Postmaster, the Mayor, the merchant tailor, the groceryman, and the one who edits the paper must have their puffs, and the paper must be run in accordance with their wishes, or it will die. And the Preacher went away looking more thoughtful."

"After using a few bottles of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure my wife received perfect and permanent relief from a severe and obstinate case of stomach trouble," says J. E. Holly, real estate, insurance and loan agent, of Mounds, Ill. "Before using Kodol Dyspepsia Cure she could not eat ordinary food without intense suffering, and was terribly constipated. Several physicians and many remedies had failed to help her, but Kodol Dyspepsia Cure did more good than all the other remedies and doctors combined. It has done me a world of good. I gladly testify to its merits." For Sale by S. F. Reed, druggist.

An auctioneer in Tyler (Texas) announced the sensational sensitive furnace of Hell-mouth. He made the following statement: "Gentlemen, you must not go into that hell-hole unless you are willing to leave your souls behind you. Those who enter that hell-hole must leave their souls behind them. Those who enter that hell-hole must leave their souls behind them. Those who enter that hell-hole must leave their souls behind them
