THE MERCURY.
PUBLISHED EVERY THURSDAY.
S. R. Keller, S. W. Keller
KELLER & SON, Publishers.
O. S. KELLER ..... Editor
J. W. POWLING ..... Foreman
SUBSCRIPTION RATES:
One year in advance ..... $ 1 00
If not in advance 1 50
Entered in the Carlisle postoffice as second-class matter.
THURSDAY, MAR. 20, ... 1902

Adjourned.

The fifty-fifth biennial session of the General Assembly adjourned sine die at midnight Tuesday. The recess bill, increasing the State tax rate from 47½ to 50 cents and otherwise increasing the State revenue by about $500,000 or six aggregate, passed the House at 2:30 o'clock and was enrolled and read in both houses before mid-night.

The Redistricting, the Local Appropriation and the Mt. Sterling Fair Appropriation Bill were defeated in the House.

The bill allowing the 9th and 6th class cities to established free libraries by taxation, passed.

The Legislature will go down to history as "one of the hardest working bodies ever assembled at Frankfort," and one that never stampeded but three times.

General News.

Thos. H. Swope, of Kenton City, Ohio, has given Harvard University at Danville, Ky., a similar sum, was raised by subscription making an addition of $50,000 to the College fund.

While she was kneeling in prayer, the shooting of Miss Charlotte Lee, an aged woman at Warner, Ind., ignited from a stove and she was burned to death. The cost of $84,000.

One thousand dollars was paid by a cleanpaque company (which was the highest bid for the privilege) per month to fix wine at the banquet given Prince Henry in Chicago.

Former Congressman Samuel J. Pugh and several other republicans of Ohio and Kentucky have formed a pool and the company to operate in the Bagdad oil field.

A syndicate in possession of the entire issue Burgin, Ky., was dynamited by unknown persons. The dynamite was brought to the scene, but failed to explode.

Gov. Jackson, the negro who claimed to have driven the last confederate from Fort Boyd's remains, was fatally injured in a runaway accident at Mayville.

The Ivels Oil and Gas Company, of Hardy Grove, McLean county, struck a fine flow of gas and oil at about a hundred feet yesterday almost in the heart of the town. It is the second flow struck in that county.

Mrs. Mary Ann Hall, 102 has already been struck there in two weeks.

It costs money—big money to eat in certain royalty. It is estimated that the cost of Prince Henry's visit to this city for entertainment in the country was $700,000. The principal items of the expense were as follows: Metropolitan Opera House orchestra, $10,000; decorations, $50,000; Mayor Low's dinner to Prince Henry, $10,000; Mayor Low's dinner to city officials and citizens' committee, $10,000; Lord Mayor's dinner, $10,000; naval exhibition, $50,000; Prince Henry's visit to Boston, $50,000; Mayor Low's dinner to Prince Henry, $10,000; all items to the Lord-mayor's fund