Most Popular Line to the West. Great World's Fair Route for 1904.

The Baltimore and Ohio Southwestern Railroad has in force an attractive special rate of $60.00 for the round trip, including season coal privileges, and adding new and elegant equipment and is now prepared to offer the traveling public all the comforts at home while journeying over this line. The company will be a big factor in the travel to the coming World's Fair and is making great preparations at this early day in order to handle the large crowds that will go from this section to St. Louis.

The B. & O. S. W. now has three through trains daily to St. Louis, making the run from Cincinnati in 5 hours, three quicker hours, and two faster time on unobstructed. Four hours from Cincinnati at 7:30 a. m., 2:00 p. m. and 11:30 p. m. Parlor cars on day trains, Pullman sleeping cars, Observation Parlor Cars and Company's own dining cars. Ask the nearest agent of the line to call on you, or write to the undersigned on the "a favorite" plan of patronizing the line that gives you the best service. Rates, time cards, folders, etc., cheerfully furnished. C. H. Ormsby, General Agent Passenger Department, Southwestern Region, Cincinnati, Ohio.
