We are Writing On Tuesday
Preparatory to going to market this afternoon to see what the thing we can find for your comfort and pleasure for going. We have already placed our orders for a large share of your Spring. We have some things which we can't buy on the road, hence we must occasionally go to market, and before you read this we will be having out from place to place writing "NOT" when we may discover, not writing for something with which we may assist you to shorten your journey for all sorts of occasions for Spring and Summer, and will have back just as quick as we can, consistent with doing the best we can for you, and while we are gone, Mr. July and Howard will be with us, with instructions to do all things in your ADVANCE. By Friday at 7 o'clock a.m., you may expect us right on hand, ready and willing, you anxious to do the very best we can for your interest.
