Judge Cole.

Hon. A. R. Cole whose critical illness has been mentioned, died at 7:30 o'clock this morning at his home, north-east corner of Fourth and Limestone streets, of valvular disease of the heart. He had been in failing health for two years, and had been confined to his home for some time.

Judge Cole was in the sixty-fifth year of his age. He was born at West Union, Adams County, O., in 1830, but had resided in Kentucky since early childhood. He taught school a number of years and afterwards took up law, reading in the office of Judge R. H. Stanton until admitted to the bar in 1864. The following year he located at Flemingsburg, and subsequently served Fleming county as County Attorney eight years, was then Commonwealth's Attorney six years and Circuit Judge twelve years. He came to Maysville in 1886, and spent the rest of his life in this city. Since his retirement from the bench he had practiced law, having his two sons as partners.

Judge Cole was married twice. His first wife, who died nine years ago, was Abbie T. Throop. His last wife was Mrs. Belle R. Newman, of Sonora, Ky. She survives him, and he leaves three sons, all by his first wife,—Allen D. and Wadsworth, of this city, and Wm. T., of Greenup.—[Maysville Bulletin, July 2nd.

IN MEMORIUM.

Brethren—Your committee charged with the duty of reporting in relation to the death of Bro. Kokendoffer beg to report:

Bro. Kokendoffer was born Oct. 21, 1827 in Nicholas county, where he spent most of his life. In 1865 he placed his membership in the East Union church, and shortly afterwards was made an officer of which position he was holding at the time of his death, which occured on the night of the 17th of June 1903.

The writer does not know when and where he was made a Mason. The records shows that he was one of the charter members of B. F. Reynolds Lodge, which was set to work under dispensation October 18th, 1866. During the long and eventful years since his initiation, he lived and died without a blemish upon his Masonic life. He was a loyal Mason. He was a Mason at heart as well as in name was true and faithful to all his vows, had a kind word for everyone, a helping hand for those in need, and was loved by all the fraternity, many of whom assisted in the last sad rites, which took place Saturday evening June 19th, 1903, in Carlisle cemetery amid the tokens of grief and affections from the large crowd that attended his burial. While in company with his sorrowing friends and stricken family, we drop a tear to his memory and confidently look forward to a glorious reunion "beyond this vale of tears." We recommend:

First—That as an evidence of our respect and esteem for him, we wear for 30 days the badge of mourning.

Second—That these proceedings be spread at large upon our lodge book, and a copy hereof be furnished to the family of the deceased, also to the Carlisle Mercury and Carlisle Democrat for publication.

Committee: Robert Barr, Chas. W. Durham.

Old Citizens.

A dispatch from Owingsville, Ky., July 2nd, says: "Uncle Tommy" Stephens, of Odessa, this county, was a recent visitor to town. Mr. Stephens will be ninety years of age next August, and retains most of his faculties, being able to properly attended to business. He has been married three times, and is father of twenty-one children. He is, with one exception, the oldest man in this section, the exception being Elder James Moore, who is ninety eight years old."

I have practiced medicine for 36 years and have consulted the leading physicians in this country in regard to a remedy for Dyspepsia, but have never been able to find anything that would effect a cure until I used Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. I have suffered with stomach trouble for years. Could not eat anything but milk toast for months, but since I used Kodol I can eat anything and feel that my health is better than it ever was in my life. I cannot say enough for Kodol for it has saved my life and I know that it will cure any case of Dyspepsia if taken as directed. —M. D. Settle, M. D., Big Hill, Ky. Sold by S. P. Baird.

Our Big Crop.

$10,000 GIVEN AWAY!

The Louisville Courier Journal to Make a Cash Distribution to Subscribers.

In 1891-2, the Courier-Journal, of Louisville, Ky, inaugurated and carried to a successful issue the first great estimating contest ever conducted by a newspaper. This contest was based on the Presidential election of 1892, and $14,400 was distributed to Courier-Journal readers.

In response to numerous requests, the Courier-Journal has decided to inaugurate another similar contest, based on the total vote cast for all candidates for Governor of Kentucky in the election, November 3, 1903. Ten thousand dollars (in gold, silver, or greenbacks) will be given away to successful estimators. There will be single gifts of $3,000, $2,000, $1,000, $500, $300, $200, $150, $100, $50, and $30, and 1,270 gifts of $10 each. In addition, there will be gifts of $500, $300, and $200 for the best estimates received before August 1, before September 1, and before October 1. The object of this profit-sharing liberality on the part of the Courier-Journal is to secure new subscribers for the Daily and Weekly Courier-Journal. Every person subscribing for the Weekly Courier Journal one year, sending one dollar with the subscription, is entitled to two guesses or estimates. Every person subscribing for the Daily Courier-Journal by mail one month (50 cents) is entitled to one guess; one year ($6.00) twelve guesses.

W. J. Bryan.

An old friend of W. J. Bryan, in an interview with a Courier-Journal reporter says:

"I have known him all my life," he said, "and have known him well. He is a brilliant man and I am a great admirer of his although I am not of his way of thinking. Bryan always had a leaning for the newspaper business and prefers it to law, or even politics. He used to write a great deal for a paper in Omaha, and is now happy with his Commoner. He was always a speaker, and I heard him not long ago speak in a church in Philadelphia. He knew the pastor of the church, who had lived in Lincoln, and agreed to lecture there, charging nothing, to help raise a fund to pay off a mortgage on the church. They charged $5 a seat, and the church was filled so full that it was impossible for another person to enter. Several hundreds were turned away. The fund was raised in one night. The act was characteristic of Bryan. He is a strong Presbyterian and is a great church man."

Catarrh of the Stomach.

When the stomach is overloaded, when food is taken into it that fails to digest, it decays and inflames the mucous membrane, exposing the nerves, and causes the glands to secret mucin, instead of the natural juices of digestion. This is called the Catarrh of the Stomach. For years I suffered with Catarrh of the Stomach, caused by indigestion.

Only a Printer.

"He is only a printer." Such was the sneering remark of a leader in a circle of aristocracy—codfish quality. Who was the Earl of Stanhope? He was only a printer. What was Prince Edward William and Napoleon? Proud to call themselves printers. The Czar of Russia, the Crown Prince of Prussia and the Duke of Battenburg were printers, and the Emperor of China worked in a private printing office almost every day of his life. William Caxton, the father of English literature was a practical printer. What were J. P. Morris, N. P. Willis, James Parker, Horace Greely, Charles Dickens, James Buchanan, Simon Cameron, Schuyler Colfax? Printers all, and practical ones. Mark Twain, Amos J. Cummings, Brete Harte, William Dean Howells, Joel Chandler Harris and Opie Reade were plain practical printers, as were Artemus Ward, Petroleum V. Nasby, Sut Lovingood and Chas. Day, Senator Plumb, of Kansas, and James J. Hogg, ex-governor of Texas, were all printers and the leader of science and philosophy in his day made it his boast that he was a "tour" printer. In fact, thousands of the most brilliant minds in this country are to be found in large cities and towns. It is not every one that can be a printer—brains are absolutely necessary."—[Century.

Brutally Tortured.

A case came to light that for persistent and unmerciful torture has perhaps

Very Remarkable Cure of Diarrhoea.

"About six years ago for the first time in my life I had a sudden and severe attack of diarrhoea," says Mrs. Alice Miller, of Morgan, Texas. "I got temporary relief, but it came back again and again, and for six long years I have suffered more misery and agony than I can tell. It was worse than death. My husband spent hundreds of dollars for physicians' prescriptions and treatment without avail. Finally we moved to Bosque county, our present home, and one day I happened to see an advertisement of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy with a testimonial of a man who had been cured by it. The case was so similar to my own that I concluded to try the remedy. The result was wonderful. I could hardly realize that I was well again, or believe it could be so after having suffered so long, but that one bottle of medicine, costing but a few cents, cured me." For sale by Jno. O'Connell & Co.

The Lexington Leader says: Dr. W. F. Wals met with a peculiar accident Saturday night. While enjoying a few hours of sleep the doctor was attacked by a spider which bit him on the lower lip. The bite, while not painful, is extremely uncomfortable, the lip having swelled to about three times its normal size.
