An Eccentric Preacher.

Greenup, Ky., June 5.—Henry Scruth, who gives his home as Covington, arrested here yesterday and preached last night on the meritorious system. He gave hare-brained views on every subject and says he would not have been out of jail more than a day if he had not been arrested on a charge of vagrancy, and how long preaching was to be.

Tom Hankins of Egypt is tired of love affairs and has filed notice of his withdrawal in the world. It was made in Earlsland, June 10,000.

Ten feet six down and waits for evidence, sometimes in some big way, but the wise man always examines and generally he make them great.—Chicago Daily News.
