CARLISLE MERCURY.

G. R. KELLER & SON, Pubs.

CARLISLE, KENTUCKY

SUMMARY OF A WEEK'S EVENTS

Latest News of Interest Boiled Down for the Busy Man.

PERSONAL.

Theodore Roosevelt has added to the string of letters he is entitled to write after his name the LL. D of Cambridge (England) university. With quiet ceremonies the signal honor from one of the world's oldest and most famous universities was bestowed upon the former president.

Robed in a white lace gown that cost $15,000, Miss Mathilde Townsend, one of the best known girls in Washington, D. C., daughter of Mrs. May Scott Townsend, was married to Peter Goelet Gerry of New York, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elbridge T. Gerry of New York.

A Boston (Mass.) patrolman, Stephen Higgins, is standing a lot of joking from his fellow members of the force since Thomas W. Lawson for a second story worker the other night and actually "captured" the financier.

Leroy Hutchins, eighteen years old, son of Mayor A. B. Hendricks of Sterling, Ill., has signed on a tour around the world on a motorcycle. He expects to earn his expenses by publishing signs.

Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt visited Buckingham palace and had a long chat with Alexandra, the queen mother. The call was made at the suggestion of her majesty, who, when she received Mr. Roosevelt, expressed the hope that she might see the former president's wife.

Wearied of publicity, tired of fame, of newspaper praise and shore journals, A. Patton, the wheat and cotton king, is to retire with his millions from business July 1.

Commander Robert E. Peary received the honorary degree of doctor of laws from the University of Edinburgh. The conferment was made before a large company, which gave the American explorer a cordial welcome.

Charles P. Taft of Cincinnati, brother of President Taft, will make no fight in Ohio this year for the title to the senate scholarship, but instead will go to Europe leaving the fight for Senator Charles Dick, the present incumbent.

A bronze statue of the late Herbert Spencer, first president of the Southern railway, presented to the city of Atlanta and the state of Georgia by Southern employees of the railway, was unveiled at Atlanta.

Mrs. Hetty Green has been hailed to court in a suit for $500 in New York. A sale deposit company says she owes the sum as rental for boxes used to store papers belonging to the estate of her father.

Albert J. Hall, son of the millionaire, Amos J. Hoell, whose marriage in 1904 created a widespread sensation, was married to Miss Ethel Lee Hall, daughter of Mrs. Hall, at the residence of the bride in Chicago.

President-elect Taft and Mrs. Taft, Col. Theodore Roosevelt, King George of England, President Diaz of Mexico and William Jennings Bryan were made life members of the Worlds Building School association in the convention at Washington amid scenes of great enthusiasm. For each of those so honored a gold key had to be subscribed.

GENERAL NEWS.

The trump card in the prosecution of Charles R. Heike, secretary of the American Sugar Refining company, was played at the sugar trust under weighing conditions. Chief Justice Chester Rimpson called as the government's first witness Oliver Spitzer, superintendent of the Williamsburg docks, who swore that he was convicted of underweighing and overgrading for two years in the federal penitentiary.

E. F. Hutton & Co., one of the most prominent brokerage firms in New York, was suspended from membership on the New York stock exchange for one year for having violated a strict rule of the exchange in regard to splitting commissions.

While trying to dive under a ferry boat in the English channel, the French submarine Pluviose was struck, rammed and sunk with all on board. The Pluviose carried a crew of 22 men and four officers, and all went down when the vessel sank.

The story of how a bribe of $2,000 was offered Representative William C. Hair of Mount Vernon to vote for the anti-local option bill in the last Illinois general assembly was told to the Sangamon county grand jury at Springfield by Ernest A. Bersch, assistant superintendent of the Anti-Saloon league.

The Mississippi Valley Historical association held its semi-annual meeting in Iowa City, Ia., with a large attendance.

Monticalf, N. J., will vote next Thursday on the adoption of the municipal art commission's plan to spend $1,500,000 for a "city beautiful."

Secretary MacVeagh of the treasury department has ordered a machine to wash and iron dirty paper money.

The police authorities of Madrid, Spain, after careful investigation, are of the opinion that the bomb exploded in that city May 31 was intended for King Alfonso.

State's Attorney Edmund Burke of Springfield, Ill., opened his investigation of the alleged use of money in connection with the anti-local option bill in the legislature by hearing subpoenas for seven men providentially identified with the liquor interests of the state.

The Standard Oil company has increased the wages of its workmen from 6 to 10 per cent. The order is retroactive and became effective May 1. It is estimated that the company will add from $5,000,000 to $10,000,000 to its annual pay roll expense. The new scale affects employees engaged in the company's works and factories, but the office men will not be benefited by this increase. Most of the employees who will get the increase are laborers, and the advance applies to all the subsidiary companies in the United States. The company has approximately 70,000 employees. The Standard is one of the very few big concerns of this country which has never had a strike among its employees.

Oliver Spitzer, former superintendent of the docks of the American Sugar Refining company in Williamsburg, explained in court at New York why he did not confess during the trial which ended last February with his being sentenced to two years at Atlanta. His confession, he declared, was that "I have carried him to a cemetery. In a coffin, he would have implied that a dead man, Henry O. Havemeyer, lies in the Woodlawn cemetery.

After he had mowed the grass on his own burial lot in preparation for a Memorial Day parade in Battle Creek, Mich., Jacob Rudolph, seventy-five years of age, fell dead, from heart disease.

Rev. Dr. Henry Kendall Booth, for general assembly at Seattle City, N. Y., spoke from the New Hope Springs, N. A. Reeves presided and the clerks were welcomed by Postmaster F. K. Johnson. The day was devoted to business, and in the evening there was a banquet at the Moody hotel.

Professor Robert Koch, the world's greatest authority on tuberculosis and cholera, died at Baden-Baden from a disease of the heart. He was in his sixty-seventh year. Dr. Koch was graduated in medicine in 1866 and began the study of traumatic infective diseases, especially those of wounds. In medicine and placed bacteriology on a scientific basis.

Mrs. Rachel Johnson, of Darton, O., was killed and Mrs. Ida Wilson and her little daughter were seriously injured in a runaway accident which occurred at Hammond, La.

Two men were driving across a bridge over a creek when an alarm was given that the bridge was on fire. One end of the bridge and freshened the horses. The driver of the bridge into the creek, carrying the horses with him, with the vehicle.

Mrs. John Cooper was instantly crushed and died shortly afterward. Mrs. Wilson and the baby escaped with slight injuries are not believed to be fatal. Mrs. Wilson is a sister-in-law of Mrs. John Cooper, La.

The senate adopted an amendment to the postoffice appropriation bill providing for telegraph and telephone service between the interstate commerce commission and the postoffice department. The amendment was offered by Senator Bourne of Oregon. Senator Bourne explained the purpose of the amendment to provide for the transmission of the commission's orders by telegraph or telephone. The amendment was adopted by a viva voce vote. The senate then adjourned until Monday, June 21.

PETRIFIED GODDES FOUND.

Baltimore, Md., ... While excavating ... cemetery at ... Harford county, Ky., went to ... of petrification, ... and that it was ... it is heavy, and was ... ferior detail of fin ...

... sought to lift ... on the ... found there were ... on the ... 15 years ago. The ... started to ... ments in the ground ... with the bodies were ...

TOBACCO MARKET.

... The offerings ... Neighborhood ... burley prices ranged ... and dark from $7.90@ ...

LIVE STOCK MARKET.

... Cattle — Shipping ... choice $6.25@6.50; ... 7.25; good to ... extra $5.75@6, good ... 6@6.25; fair ... $5@5.75; fat bulls ... $4.50@5.75; bulls ... $3.50@4.50; fair to ... $3@3.50; canners ... $2@2.75; calves ... $4.50@7.25; good ... $6.50@7.25; fair ... $5@6.50; veal calves ... $6