Have You Tried It?

There is a bottle of Cardui waiting for you at the drug store. Have you tried it?

If not, we urge you to do so, before your troubles have obtained such a hold on you, that nothing will drive them out.

Even now, it may be nearly too late. But try it anyhow. If anything can help you, Cardui will. It has helped in thousands of cases, where other medicines had been tried in vain. Why should it not do the same for you?

The Woman's Tonic

"My daughter, Octava, would have been in her grave today, had it not been for that fine medicine, Cardui," writes Mrs. Laura Lawrence, of Dremmon Springs, Ky. "Nothing I tried helped my daughter, and she had taken Cardui. I had sent for the doctor, when I thought of your medicine and got a $1 bottle. When she had taken four doses she became all right. I often recommend Cardui to my friends."

Your druggist sells Cardui with full instructions for use on the bottle.

Rising Sun Board of Equalization.

Suit is to be brought at once by Jefferson Barnes and other counties of the State against the arbitrary raise in assessment made by the State Board of Equalization. The suit rests upon the fact that the members of the board, whose sole duty is to equalize the assessment, have attempted to serve notice that it is and that the board exercised the functions of assessor under the act creating it. That instead of equalizing the assessment between the counties it undertook to increase the assessment of this county. It is proven that a member of the Board started out like a tax collector to collect the financial condition of the State treasury, which is now without funds to meet the demands upon it.

We believe the Court of Appeals will decide this matter in favor of the contention of the counties, as the action of the State Board is a dangerous usurpation of authority, believing that the constitution is the legislative branch. The constitution specifically provides that the assessment of personal and taxation is especially reserved to the legislature and that all bills of such a nature must originate in the House of Representatives. Revenue can be raised in this way. Some 15 counties have appealed and the other by increasing the assessment. If the State Board has a right to increase the assessment of the State $37,000,000 by that board, it has a right to increase all kinds of property and every county certain other counties and excepting other counties. Even if it has the right to increase the assessment of this million the action was illegal. We do not believe that it has the right and we feel confident the Court of Appeals will so decide.—Hickman Courier.
