CARLISLE MERCURY.

G. R. KELLER & SON, Pubs.

CARLISLE, KENTUCKY

IMPORTANT NEWS NOTES OF A WEEK

LATEST HAPPENINGS THE WORLD OVER TOLD IN ITEMIZED FORM.

EVENTS HERE AND THERE

Condensed Into a Few Lines for the Perusal of the Busy Man—Latest Personal Information.

PERSONAL.

Mary Davis, a 13-year-old New York girl, is in good health and cheerful spirits despite the fact that the fun-loving child is a five-story fire escape, landing in a basketful of wet clothes. Miss Mary narrowly escaped.

Andrew Carnegie is making a study of the heavens through powerful telescopes in the great observatory which he founded on Mount Wilson, near Pasadena, Cal.

Virginia Earle ten years ago one of the brightest musical comedy stars of Broadway, is ill and destitute in New York, having been found unconscious in a shabby flat.

GENERAL NEWS.

Twelve lives were lost in a fire in the building of the E. Fish Furniture Company, at 1906-1908 Wabash avenue, which the occurrence said, afterwards duplicated on a minor scale in the Eastman theater disaster. Explosions and the flames which caught a number of young women trapped in the sixth floor of the building have marched that investigation revealed that the building in which the disaster occurred had been built for the storage of the building department store, been inspected, and that the structure was erected and maintained in direct violation of the city ordinances.

Louisville has the appalling details of Pittsburg's grim conflagration. Burning documents against 21 present and past councilmen and making a demand upon the directors of the city department to investigate their acts as boards and ascertain the bribe-getters in connection with the ordinance granting their institutions as city depositories. Today the most of the presentments made by the grand jury have been quashed.

The original of Mount Zion is increasing in virulence hourly. Fifteen new cases, appearing hurriedly, are sending forth blue and gold flames, hurling cinders and melted lava, accompanied by terrific earthquake shocks and almost explosive. Panic and despair have seized upon the residents, who plan masses of favorable saints and then for. Cardinal Francisco Nava visited Nocolosi bearing the veil of Saint Agatha, in order to stop the eruption of lava.

At the request of Frank Pelz, cousin of Alma Kellner, the child kidnaped at Louisville, Ky., last December, Governor Willson of Kentucky has withdrawn the offer of $500 reward, which is believed to have kept the abductors from making terms.

That the British government will ask funds for the salary of Col. Theodore Roosevelt, on his trip to Cairo being the head of the Egyptian national movement was demonstrated by the throngs of politicians that guarded the exercise yard from the moment the train arrived in that city until the Rhodesian passage had deposited him at the door of Marquardt's hotel. Col. Roosevelt's speeches at Khartum and Omdurman, in which he pleaded for closer cooperation with the British Empire, and his remarks about the necessity of the Nationalists and in view of the establishment of Home Rule in Ireland, the premier, the governor of Ireland, that every precaution be taken to guard the express train, Colonel Roosevelt laughed at the idea of danger and requested that the train proceed as far as Cairo.

Amid unanimous vote the house passed a resolution naming a committee of nine, composed of six Republicans and three Democrats, under provisions of the Norris resolution, to conduct a search for Judge Landis.

Continued relaxation in the Panama-Pacific exhibition grafft prosecution, by confession, and their connection with graft in the city of San Francisco.

Texas's lame been tabooed at the Panama-Pacific exposition, which has no bona fides of barbarism, in authority and appearance, but only one big sheets of paper instead for grass.

That cooperation between Great Britain and the United States is the possible as a means of reforming the Panama canal, in the opinion of Lord Charles Beresford, is the main decision of the report of the Canal commission transmitted to congress in a special message by President Taft.

Congressman Norris wrestled the steel over the house for ten minutes for the temporary absence of Speaker Cannon.

According to a jury's verdict before Justice of the Peace James H. Dieterle of Morristown, N. J., the word "damn" is not an oath or a "swear word."

Jordan Angor, the Korean who assassinated Prince Ito of Japan at Harbin, October 26 last, was executed at Port Arthur.

J. F. Cudahy, who started Zero F. Lilies in Kansas City, Mo., two weeks ago will pass the next year on his father's ranch in Pasadena, Cal.

In a collision between a trolley car and an automobile Mrs. Blowers, wife of Maj. Herbert J. Blowers of the Riverside cavalry, United States army, was almost instantly killed, while May Lee, J. Franklin Bell, chief of staff, United States army, was painfully injured in Washington.

Mrs. Charles T. Yerkes, widow of the Chicago traction magnate, who died four years ago, will sell at auction the mansion at Fifth avenue and Sixty-eighth street, New York, together with all its art gems, to satisfy claims of creditors.

Although facing a charge of embezzling $150,000 from the National City bank of Cambridge, Mass., George W. Johnson has taken out a license to marry Miss May Hightower of Kon Kon City, Mo.

John M. Hayes, an Oklahoma City (Okla.) prohibition pioneer and attorney, acting for the state, has sued the Santa Fe road for $25,000 on the charge of starting liquors consigned to Hackett.

Attorney Louis Brandeis, represented, Lee Glass and others, sprung a decided surprise before the Ballinger-Pinchot investigating committee by declaring that he would not call Secretary Ballinger as one of his witnesses. Attorney Brandeis declared that Ballinger objected. The committee will decide the matter in an executive session.

Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt's wife had gone to the theater with her brother, Alfred D. Gracie, a lawyer, when a masked robber shot and probably wounded her, Mrs. Roosevelt's wounded arm and the wounded 12-year-old servant girl and then shot himself through the head.

United States senators are to be given the right to name their own secretaries, superior to the magnificent bath which the senate chamber office building. A professional masseur will of Senator Bourne at a salary of $1,800 a year.

Mrs. Mozart Simpson his wife had gone to the theater with her brother, Alfred D. Gracie, a lawyer, when a masked robber shot and probably wounded her, Mrs. Roosevelt's wounded arm and the wounded 12-year-old servant girl and then shot himself through the head.

United States senators are to be given the right to name their own secretaries, superior to the magnificent bath which the senate chamber office building. A professional masseur will of Senator Bourne at a salary of $1,800 a year.